WASHINGTON, June 3, 1869.

EXPEDITION FOR CUBA.

A Cuban expedition left the Southern coast on the 29th of May. It numbered four hundred and seventy-five men, who are part of General Jordan's command. All of them are ex-Federal and Confederate soldiers. From reliable information received by interested parties here, it is learned the men and munitions of war have safely landed and joined the Cuban forces. The expedition was in charge of a distinguished Colonel of the Confederate army from Louisiana, Col. DeRussy.

THAT CABLE BILL.

The sixty thousand dollars telegraph bill against the Department of State has been paid by this Government, through the Barings. Two-thirds of this sum was due on cable telegrams concerning the Alaska purchase. The correctness of the bill had been disputed, because the Company had charged as full words single figures only, which had been substituted for letters in the State Department cipher.

KNIGHT TEMPLARS FURLOUGHED.

The President this morning issued an order directing that all Knight Templars employed in Executive Departments, who wish to attend the semi-centennial anniversary of St. Johns Lodge, No 1, at Philadelphia, be granted leave of absence for four days, commencing on the 15th inst.

CONSULS APPOINTED.

The following Consuls have been appointed: J. Mason Rice. A. L. Brindisi, O. H. Irish, at Dresden; B. O. Duncan, at Naples; J. G. Moffiett, at Pernambuco; Thomas Adamson, Jr., at Honolulu; J. C. Cover, at Fayal.

OTHER APPOINTMENTS.

M. M. Trumbull has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third District of Iowa, and A. C. Matthews for the Ninth District of Illinois; Oscar H. Lagrange, Superintendent of the Branch Mint at San Francisco; James Russell Jones, Minister Resident at Belgium.

TREASURY AT SAN FRANCISCO.

The Secretary of the Treasury this morning received a letter from the Assistant Treasurer of the United States at San Francisco, dated May 28th, giving a report of the operations of the office there and announcing there were six millions in coin subject to the draft of the Treasury.

GOES TO ANNAPOLIS.

The President will leave Washington this afternoon, in the United States steamer Tallapoosa, for Annapolis, and will attend the ball given by the Midshipmen in honor of Mrs. Admiral Porter to-morrow night.

INDIAN DISTURBANCES.

The Indian Bureau has received no official information whatever concerning the recent Indian disturbances, accounts of which are published in the newspapers. The Commissioner therefore thinks they are exaggerations.

REINSTATED.

Brevet Major Chas. O. Wood, United States Army, recently sentenced to six months suspension for striking a brother officer in Alaska, has been reinstated in the service, by order of the President.

CABINET CONSULTATION.

Several members of the Cabinet had a consultation with the President this morning in reference to matters before their respective departments.

WHOLLY UNTRUE.

There is official authority for saying the rumors circulating about a disagreement between the President and Commissioner Delano are wholly untrue.

CUSTOMS.

The Customs receipts from May 24th to 31st, inclusive, were $3,472,083.

United Presbyterian Assembly.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—The United Presbyterian Assembly, in session at Monmouth, Illinois, to-night, after an exciting discussion, adopted the report of the Committee on Secret Societies. It reaffirms the former law of the church on the subject, and directs sessions to enforce the same.

The report of the Committee on Board of Home Missions was considered.

The article on the confession of faith, on marriage ceremony which was read yesterday, was to-day overtured to the Presbyteries. The question to be answered is: "Shall this rule be repealed?"

The Assembly discussed the subject of Presbyterian Union this evening. A substitute to Dr. Clark's paper was adopted. Its substance is, that without approving the acts of the Conference fully, the Assembly continue the same Committee to negotiate with similar committees of other Presbyterian churches. The substitute elicited considerable discussion, but was finally passed by a large majority.

The Brewers' Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEWARK, N. J., May 3.—The Brewers' Congress adjourned to-day to meet in Davenport next May. A constitution was presented and referred to the next Congress for adoption. The Finance Committee reported a balance in the treasury of over six thousand dollars. Resolutions were adopted that beer should be taxed, not as a luxury, but on some plan as necessaries of life, and brewers relieved from arbitrary seizures by ignorant officials; that the tariff on Canada barley should be reduced and the tax on malt repealed; that their manufacture promotes true temperance; and that they will use all honorable means to drive puritanical temperance men from political power.

Henry Claussen was re-elected President and the seat of central organization fixed at New York.

—The new Richmond Flour Mill, two miles south of Frederick, Maryland, was destroyed by an incendiary fire Thursday morning. The engine house and contents were saved. Loss, $10,000; insured for $5,000.

Reciprocity of Trade with Canada—Steamer Quaker City to be Released—Pardon by President Grant—The Dupy Pardon Case—Arrival of Three Hundred Skilled English and Welsh Miners—Tremendous Influx of Norwegians—Chicago Merchant's Release Refused—Justin McCarthy to Speak on the Alabama Qbestion.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 2.

The New York Chamber of Commerce met to-day, Hon. Geo. Opedyke in the Chair. Gen. Hiram Walbridge submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce of New York city heartily endorses the resolution of the Committee of Ways and Means, which unanimously passed the House of Representatives of the United States on the 23d of March, 1869, recommending the President of the United States to renew negotiations with the Government of Great Britain, and press them, if possible, to a definite conclusion, for the arrangement of reciprocal trade with Canada, and securing to our citizens the freedom of the river St. Lawrence and freedom of the inshore fisheries of the coast of British North America.

General Walbridge, in a lengthy speech, said while opposing any measures looking to the acquisition of Canada by force, he would welcome its people when they are willing to link their political fortunes with the United States. He did not believe it good policy to attempt to coerce Canada by commercial restrictions into a union with the United States. Intimate commercial relations should be brought about upon terms mutually beneficial, and the political result will follow in good time. General Walbridge stated the questions between the United States and the Provinces were, first, an interchange of natural products of soil upon such reciprocal terms as may be agreed upon; second, accumulation of excise duties and of patent and copyright laws; third, free navigation of the river St. Lawrence and enlargement of the canal south; fourth, freedom of inshore fisheries of the coast of British America; fifth, regulation of transit trade.

He then proceeded to argue in favor of the resolutions and propositions above advanced, contending that whilst the Canadians will be satisfied with the convenience of selling in our markets in return for the enlargement of the St. Lawrence Canal by them free of cost to the United States, the freedom of the St. Lawrence and fisheries, yet that convenience of our markets to them will really be no competition to our farmers and absolute benefit to our merchants. Our capital and credit, together with the fact that we have free access to the ocean at all seasons of the year, would be a great convenience to Canadians, but their use also necessarily implies that in using our capital, our credit and our ports, we derive the advantages that possession of capital, credit and ports give to the community. In other words, we become the merchants of four millions of people, whom we are now driving away.

The resolution was adopted, and it was voted that a copy of the argument be transmitted to the Secretary of State, who, it is understood, is about to take into consideration the proposition advocated by Gen. Walbridge.

District Attorney Pierrepont has consented to take bonds for the Quaker City on her appraised value, and the matter will be brought before Judge Blatchford for his action on Saturday, when the vessel will, it is said, be formally released. The owners are losing one thousand dollars per day by her detention. President Grant has pardoned George Meyers, convicted in January of having counterfeit five dollar National currency in his possession, with intent to pass. Judge Benedict and District Attorney Pierrepont recommended the pardon.

The Dupuy pardon case comes up for argument before Judge Blatchford on Saturday. This was the case where pardons were revoked by President Grant.

Among one thousand four hundred steerage passengers, landed yesterday from the steamer Manhattan, there were three hundred skilled English and Welch workmen of different trades. The influx of Norwegians continues enormous, and it is said that at least twenty thousand will arrive within the next eighteen months. Their destination is invariably the Northwest.

Moses E. Ludington, a merchant of Chicago, who is alleged to have obtained $7,200 worth of goods upon false representations, and who is confined in Ludlow street jail, was brought before Judge McCunn, on a writ of habeas corpus, to be admitted to bail, so as to be able to prepare for trial. Judge McCunn rendered a decision denying the motion for the prisoner's release and remanding him to prison.

Justin McCarthy, late editor of the London Star, is announced to speak at Cooper Institute on Monday evening next on the Alabama question.

The raft Nonpareil, on which Captain Minks made a trip to Europe, is again ready for a like voyage.

John Alstyne, one of the oldest members of the Stock Exchange, died this morning.

John W. Briggs, one of the proprietors of the Briggs Stables, in Twenty-third street, burned in December last, was this morning arrested on a charge of hiring W. P. Sheldon to burn the stables, and was committed for examination next Monday, bail being refused.

General Synod Reformed Church of America.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—The General Synod of the Reformed Church of America assembled to day. The report of the Board of Directors shows the receipts during the year from bequests and donations $18,095, also $2,890 for Hope endowment fund, and $1,339 collections from churches. The widows' fund amounts to $29,192. Arrears of the classes of contingent expenses and assessment to increase the permanent fund of the General Synod $7,675.

A communication was received from classes at Holland, Wisconsin, denouncing Free Masonry, and suggesting efforts to have it totally abolished, and from classes of Wisconsin concerning the support of superannuated ministers, which, with several other communications, were referred. Adjourned.

—Albert Crowfoot, a lawyer of Detroit, has been arrested on complaint of the Sheriff, charged with assisting prisoners to escape from jail last Sunday.

Formidable Riot in Wales—Police Overpowered and Military Aid Called Upon—Correspondence on the Alabama Question Published—British Press Still Harping—From China and Japan—Meeting of the Zolverein Government.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, June 3.—Dispatches were received to-day from Mould, a small town in the north part of Wales, giving the details of a formidable riot which occurred there last evening. Several lives were lost and many persons injured. An attempt was made to rescue some prisoners in the hands of the Sheriff. The Sheriff and his guard resisted manfully, but the mob being too strong, it was found necessary to call out the military force, which fired upon the rioters, killing four instantly and wounding many more. At the date of our last dispatch the town was quiet. The prisoners were still in custody.

The London journals still continue to discuss the Alabama claims and the relations between Great Britian and the United States.

The Standard felicitates Mr. Motley on his recent speeches, and hopes England will be able to reciprocate the sentiments.

The Evening Standard to-day, in a leading editorial, says it believes America does not wish for war, in the utter absence of any reasonable motive for war. Mr. Motley's assurances were well timed and appropriate. The Standard is confident that as soon as the irritation caused by the too animated discussion of questions at issue subsides, men on both sides of the Atlantic will be ready and eager to hold out their hands to each other.

The official correspondence between England and America, relative to the Alabama affairs, is published. In February, 1868, Secretary Seward expressed a wish for the settlement of these claims, and suggesting an international conference. Subsequently Secretary Seward desired that the naturalization and San Juan questions should first be settled, and these were accordingly concluded. In October Minister Johnston, in behalf of Secretary Seward, proposed that the Alabama claims be referred to a committee formed of an equal number of British and Americans, with power to call upon an umpire in case of disagreement, whose decision should be final. Lord Stanley responded that the point on which the former negotiations broke off was mainly the claims that the Americans would raise before the arbitration. The question of the alleged premature recognition by her Majesty's government of the state of the belligerency of the Confederacy would not be taken up, and thereby cause the government to depart from the position already taken, but that he saw difficulty in so framing the reference than by mutual consent either a tacit or express difficulty might be avoided. The negotiations thereafter proceeded rapidly on the basis of this agreement, by which both nations were to be blended for the purpose of making things run smoothly, and a convention was drawn up and signed in December, England conceding that the place of meeting should be Washington. Subsequently Mr. Seward informed Mr. Thornton that the contents of the convention were not in accordance with the instructions to Minister Johnson, and the President and his colleagues could not approve of certain stipulations, which in the present form would not receive the sanction of the Senate. Mr. Seward assured Mr. Thornton of the desire of the United States to bring the matter to a satisfactory conclusion, and acknowledged the negotiations, but hoped the importance of the subject would lead him to consent to modifications acceptable to the Senate.

On the English Ministry being changed, Lord Clarendon wrote, under date of December 24th, that the British government was prepared to meet the wishes of the United States, and sent a draft of the convention on which negotiations were to be completed by the 14th of January. The second convention, drawn up by Lord Clarendon, and rejected by the Senate, was in fact a proposal to cheat the public by deceptive clauses in regard to the recognition of belligerency, and excited indignant comment here with all fair minded men, and appears to have fully justified the action of the Senate.

In the House of Lords to-day the bill for the creation of life peerages passed in Committee, with an amendment limiting the number of peers to be created under its provisions to two annually.

Sir Stafford Northcote has nominated George Peabody to be Trustee of the Hudson Bay Company, vice J. C. Emerson, resigned.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, June 3.—The Parliament of Zolverein assembled to-day. The session was opened with a speech delivered in the name of the King. The speech announces the extension of the Zolverein, assures Hamburg her commercial facilities will be greatly improved, and concludes with the declaration that the united Government of Germany is sure of the zeal and fervor of Deputies for the promotion of national interests.

Dr. Ernest William Hengstenburg, the eminent Theologian of Bonn, died to-day, aged 67.

CHINA AND JAPAN.

Advices from Hong Kong to May 11 have reached London.

Chinese news is unimportant. The civil war in Japan continued. The Mikado had sent a powerful fleet against the rebels at Hakadodi. It was reported the French officers aided the rebels there.

FRANCE.

PARIS, June 3.—Ernst Burdet, whose arrival at the City of Mexico was announced, went from St. Thomas under the authorization of the French Government to look after French interests in Mexico.

Great Excitement in Havana—General Dulce Compelled to Resign—The Volunteers the Governing Power in the Island.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, June 2, VIA KEY WEST, June 3.—General Pelaez, whose life was threatened by the volunteers, went to Cienfuegos, but the volunteers there refused to allow him to land, and he was compelled to return to Havana. On his arrival the volunteers demanded his life, because he had sold his country, asserting that he had received one hundred and twenty thousand dollars to allow some rebels to escape. Marcisse Escosura, Chief of Administration, and Senor Diarr, Secretary of Captain General Dulce, succeeded in compromising the affair with the volunteers, and further outrages were prevented.

Yesterday evening the volunteers, greatly excited, assembled before the Captain General's palace and shouted "Death to Dulce," "Death to Pelaez." This morning a Commission from the volunteers entered the palace and demanded General Dulce's immediate resignation, declaring he was allied with traitors. The resignation of the Captain General was soon afterwards announced. No act of violence was committed.

The volunteers now have full control and are really the governing power of the island. Several Lieutenant Governors and civil officers of high rank, accused of connivance with rebels, are to be relieved of their offices.

The insurgents in several recent encounters have gained slight advantages over the troops.

HAVANA, June 3.—The volunteers in Matanzas, following the example of those in Havana, assembled before the Government Palace and demanded the immediate resignation of the Governor of Matanzas. Their demand was acceded to, and Col. Leon is now acting as Governor. No outrages were committed, and at last accounts order was maintained.

The city of Havana remains exceedingly quiet, but public anxiety is intense.

A special steamer has been ordered to be in readiness to convey General Dulce to Spain, and it is expected he will depart within a day or two.

Advices from Santiago to Thursday last are that the fillibusters who recently landed at the Bay of Nipe had escaped to the interior, leaving behind some material of war, including four guns, for want of transportation. The government accounts of the affair at the Bay of Nipe are much exaggerated, and the landing of fillibusters causes depression in business. The Spaniards are uncertain of the future.

HAVANA, June 1, via KEY WEST, June 3.—The steamer Montezuma reported having sighted a schooner which had landed munitions of war on an island adjacent to the Bay of Nipe, just as she was leaving.

A fight took place at Villa Clara between twelve hundred insurgents and a company of troops. A passenger who arrived here to-day reports he saw twenty-two of the troops dead there. The others were wounded or captured except three.

Rail Road Stockholders' Meeting—Frightful Occurrence—Real Estate Sale.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—The stockholders of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company met for the purpose of electing Directors for the ensuing year. Gen. H. H. Baxter, of New York was elected Chairman of the meeting, and Francis De Pfuhl, Secretary. The following names were placed in nomination for Directors; Henry Keep, H. H. Baxter, Jno. L. Burke, Benjamin Nathan, W. L. Sykes, Jas. H. Benedict, Geo. S. Scott, Jno. Bloodgood, F. P. James, S. W. Gurner, Russell Sage, Anthony Dulman, all of New York; J. L. Ten Have, Amsterdam, Holland; H. H. Pierson, Jno. B. Turner, Geo. L. Dunlap, Chicago; Alex. Mitchell, Milwaukee. An hour after the close of the polls Col. Home, Chairman of the Inspectors, announced that 296,337 shares of the capital stock of the Company had been voted, and the result was the election of the above ticket.

Colonel James H. Howe, of Chicago, offered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, approving the acts and doings of the Board of Directors of the Company during the year ending June 2d, 1869.

The new Directors elected Henry Keep, President; Henry R. Parson, Vice President and Financial Agent; M. L. Sykes, Jr., Second Vice President; Albert L. Pritchard, Secretary and Treasurer; George L. Dunlap, General Superintendent and Chief of Engineers.

Frank Kales, a lad employed in the Staats Zeitung office, in this city, while attempting to ascend from the first floor to the composing room by means of a steam elevator, stumbled as he stepped on the platform. His feet caught in the iron while his body hung suspended from the platform. In this way he was rapidly carried up compressed in a space of four or five inches. His piercing screams attracted the attention of the engineer, and the machine was at once stopped, but not until he was fearfully crushed in every part of his body. So thoroughly was he wedged in that it became necessary to cut away the partition to release him. He is still alive, but in a critical condition.

The lot of ground on the southeast corner of State and Washington streets, owned by Timothy Wright, having a frontage on State street of one hundred feet, was sold to-day to John V. Farwell & Co. for three thousand four hundred dollars a front foot, or three hundred and forty thousand dollars for the entire lot. Messrs. Farwell & Co. will proceed to erect an elegant mammoth structure for use in the wholesale dry goods business.

At a meeting of the newly elected directors of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, this evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: John F. Tracy, President and General Superintendent; E. Cook, Secretary; no Treasurer elected; F. D. Sherman, Assistant Treasurer; E. W. Dunham, Register; P. A. Hall, Assistant General Superintendent; J. F. Tracy, E. Cook, David Dow, B. F. Allen and W. L. Scott, Executive Committee.

—The loss by the destruction of Miles, Greenwood & Co's iron manufactory, at Cincinnati, on Wednesday night, is estimated at $50,000, which is fully covered by insurance in home companies.

Military Trial in Texas.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

JEFFERSON, Texas, June 3.—In the military trial to-day, Richard Figuerres, who had turned State's evidence, and is the strongest witness for the prosecution, was placed on the stand. At first he stated he did not wish to give evidence, as General Buell expected more of him than he could tell, and had this morning threatened him with prosecution and punishment for perjury if he did not tell all he had stated privately; also, that he would be tried for the crime with the balance. He only recognized a few persons. Figuerres shed tears and the scene created much feeling. His testimony was not concluded. One or two more freedmen have been examined and sworn. Every way the trial will last three months.

San Francisco Matters.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The steamer Montana, from Panama, arrived this morning.

Gen. Thomas, the new Commander of the District of the Pacific, was serenaded at the Cosmopolitan Hotel last night. United States Senator Williams, of Oregon, was also serenaded and responded in a brief speech.

The Democratic Clubs of the city have appointed a committee to make suitable arrangements for the reception of Senator Casserly and Congressman Axtell, expected here on Saturday next.

—Gov. Stearns, of New Hampshire, was inaugurated on Thursday. In his message he says the State debt has been reduced $350,000 within the past year, and that in the same ratio it will be extinguished in eight years. The agricultural interests had been promoted. He urged the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment. The manufacturing and mercantile interests were satisfactory.

—A committee appointed by the Colored State Convention waited on General Canby, at Richmond, Va., yesterday with a petition that he should issue an order giving colored people equal rights in cars and steamboats. Gen. Canby declined to interfere in the matter and referred them to the courts as the proper place for redress of any grievance that may exist.

CHICAGO, June 3.—At open board in the afternoon in grain a quiet feeling prevailed, caused by a reported decline in Liverpool; sales of No. 2 wheat at $1,12@1,12½ cash and seller the week, and $1,11@1,11¾ seller the month. Corn and Oats neglected. Provisions and freights dull. In the evening there were no movements and the markets were dull and weak. Cattle were not very active to-day. receipts light and demand slow, with prices easier but unchanged; fresh receipts of 1,454 head, with sales of 1,621 head at $5,25@7,75. Hogs dull and weak; supply large and demand light, consequently prices declined about 10@15c; receipts of 5,745 head, with sales of 3,986 head at prices ranging from $8,40 to $8,90.

The "Friendship" in Litigation.

The little dispute which resulted in the disbandment of the old and the organization of the new "Friendship" Hose Company, in Allegheny, has assumed a new phase of a decidedly interesting character. It will be remembered that the "bolting" members, claiming that Councils had no authority to disband them, and that they were the real organization, carried off the Prize Hose Carriage and nearly all the equipments of the company. Proceeding further in the maintenance of their claims, they demanded of the Treasurer, Mr. H. R. Davis, the funds in his hands, amounting to about seven hundred dollars. Mr. Davis, by legal advice, refused their demand, retained possession of the money, and when the company were organized handed it in to that treasury. Not satisfied with this arrangement, however, and failing to make any other, the "bolters" have at last instituted proceedings in equity, in the Court of Common Pleas, with a view of compelling Mr. Davis to accede to their demands. The bill is signed by James Hunter and seventeen members of the old company, who assert they have been associated together as the Friendship Hose Company since April, 1868; have regularly received money for their services from the city authorities; and that seven hundred dollars collected by them was placed in the hands of the Treasurer, Mr. H. R. Davis, who refused to hand it over.

His successor elected by them in April last, (after the disbandment, as ordered by Councils). For these reasons they ask that an order be issued compelling him to pay over the amount to Wm. Somerville, the regular elected Treasurer, a preliminary injunction in the meantime to be issued, to prevent him from paying out or disposing of the funds in any other way.

So the case stands at present, but it is probable the court will finally settle the matter in a few days. It is but proper to say that Mr. Davis is acting under legal advice in the whole affair, and acted accordingly in turning the money over to the Treasurer of the new organization.

Learning Fast.

A colored newsboy, about thirteen years of age, developed himself in a new line yesterday, at the Federal street Depot of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad. If he but continues in the business, unless checked by some untoward event, such as the penitentiary, he is destined to achieve eminence as a swindler. His operation yesterday consisted in appropriating a valise and a roll of leather, which had been placed on the floor by a gentleman, who momentarily had his attention directed to the purchase of a ticket.

The young operator carried the goods into the freight office, and walking back to the passengers waiting-room, cooly stepped up to the gentleman who was anxiously looking for his property, and asked how much would be given for its recovery. Not suspecting the boy to be the thief, the gentlemen offered a dollar which was accepted and the loser was conducted to the baggage-room, where the articles were. The young hopeful immediately disappeared, and it was some time before the swindle was discovered. He has not been since.

Fashionable Wedding at Uniontown.

J. J. Benitz, Esq., Musical Director of St. Pauls' Cathedral Choir, of this city, was married yesterday to an accomplished and gifted young lady of Uniontown. The ceremony took place at St. Johns' Catholic Church in that town, and was accompanied with Grand High Mass, offered up by the officiating Minister, Rev. R. Waters. The church was crowded, and the services were made doubly interesting by the presence of a full choir, under direction of Prof. H. T. Knake, selected from among our best city vocalists, who were in attendance in compliment to their professional brother. The reception at the residence of the bride's parents was largely attended, many guests being present from this city and various other parts of the State. The happy young couple have our most earnest congratulations and best wishes for their welfare in the new and important sphere of life they have entered.

A Vicious Animal.

Officer Gregory Fuhrer, of the Mayor's police, on Wednesday evening had his lower jaw broken by the kick of a horse, attached to one of the Citizens' Passenger Railway cars, in Lawrenceville. The horse had balked, and the owner was assisting the driver in endeavoring to make him move on when the accident occurred. The injured man was taken home and received proper medical attention.

A. J. Cochran, Esq., City Treasurer was on the front platform of the car at the time and also received a remembrance from the vicious animal's hoofs on his hand, which was terribly lacerated, and some of the bones broken. The injury is quite painful, but not dangerous.

WHERE'S MY BABY!

Where's my baby? where's my baby?
But a little while ago,
In my arm I held one fondly,
And a robe of lengthened flow
Covered little knees so dimpled,
And each pink and chubby toe.

Where's my baby? I remember
Now about the shoes so red,
Peeping from his shortened dresses,
And the bright curls on his head;
Of the little teeth so pearly,
And the first sweet words he said.

Where's my baby? in the dooryard
Is a boy with shingled hair,
Whittling as he tries to whistle,
With a big boy's manly air;
With his pants within his boot-tops,
But my baby is not there.

Where's my baby! Ask that urchin,
Let me hear what he will say:
"Where's your baby, ma?" he questioned,
With a roguish look and way:
"Guess he's grown to be a boy, now,
Big enough to work and play."

Where's my baby? where's my baby?
Ah! the years fly on apace!
Yesterday I held and kissed it,
In its loveliness and grace;
But, to-morrow, sturdy manhood
Takes the little baby's place.

EPHEMERIS.

—The graduating class of Dartmouth College this year numbers 54.

—Henry Eckenwerth committed suicide by hanging, on Monday night, in New York.

—Johnson, a convict who escaped from the gaol at Detroit, has been captured in Canada.

—On Monday Arch-Bishop McCloskey dedicated a new Ursuline convent at Morrisania with imposing ceremonies.

—Two million five hundred thousand acres of land are to be publicly sold at Denver on the 13th day of September next.

—On Monday night a night watchman at Pier 49, East River, New York, mistook Mr. John Mayer for a river thief and shot him.

—Messner, who was to have been hanged at Rochester, N. Y., to-day, has been reprieved for two weeks by Gov. Hoffman.

—Joel C. Green, an old citizen of Cincinnati, and a well known steamboat captain, died in Cincinnati on Monday, aged sixty-two.

—Seven hundred and fifty-six libel suits are now pending in this country against newspapers, demanding aggregate damages of $47,500,000.

—The game of base ball at Brooklyn on Monday, between the Atlantics, of that place, and the Lansingburg (N. Y.) club resulted in a tie—19 to 19.

—Three men who endeavored to jump on the front platforms of street cars, in New York city, on Monday night, were knocked down and run over.

—The man who assailed Superintendent of Police Kennedy in his office in New York recently, has been sentenced to six months imprisonment.

—The State Temperance Society of Wisconsin completed its organization in Milwaukee on Tuesday, electing J. A. Dutcher President, besides a number of Vice Presidents.

—The Superior Court has decided that the City Councils of Cincinnati have no right to grant the exclusive use of lamp posts and other public property for advertising purposes.

—There are nearly one hundred cases of small pox at the hospital on Blackwells Island among German and Irish immigrants who have been sent there from Castle Garden.

—A new line of cabs has been placed in Central Park. They will hold twelve persons comfortably, have uniformed drivers, and the fare for a tour of the park is twenty-five cents.

—Mrs. Mary E. Cameron, residing in Charleston, S. C., was last week divorced from her husband, Robert Cameron, of Philadelphia. This is the first divorce ever granted in South Carolina.

—On Saturday morning, the locomotive of a passenger train exploded at Ridgeway, Michigan, killing one man and injuring three other persons. The engineer and fireman were not hurt.

—A street car driver in Louisville on Monday, during a dispute with Calvin O. Morris, a passenger, dealt him a tremendous blow with a piece of iron, which caused his death on Tuesday morning. The driver is in prison.

—The ship Figlia Maggiore, which was sunk last Thursday in New York harbor, off the Battery, is now being raised by the Submarine Wrecking Company. The work will cost about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

—A gentleman, while carrying his child across Broad street, Philadelphia, during the storm on Monday night, was assailed by a highway robber, who succeeded in stealing some papers from him, but was beaten off without getting anything of value.

—200,000 cigars, several thousand pounds of tobacco, and all the tools and fixtures of Col. E. N. Phelps tobacco factory, in Windsor, Ct., were seized by the U. S. Collector, and Col. Phelps was arrested, charged with extensive frauds against the Government.

—Last Saturday afternoon, while a party were seining in Cæsar creek, near Harveysburg, Warren county, a young man by the name of Lemuel Stump, attempted to swim across with the rope, when he was seized with cramp and almost instantly drowned. He leaves a wife and child and a widowed mother to mourn his loss.

—A dispatch from Quincy, Ill., says: The woolen mill of Moffat & Co., at Clayton, in this county, was robbed a few days since of $1,000 worth of cloths. The robbers were tracked and arrested. The goods were all recovered, together with a large lot of other goods. They were all residents of this city, and some of them have heretofore born irreproachable characters.

—On Tuesday night a party of burglars broke open the offices of the United States Express Company, Mr. Ezra Crist and Messrs. Fosdick and Kennedy, in Liberty, Indiana. They blew open the safes in all of these offices, but succeeded in getting but $20 from that of Mr. Crist and about $30 from that of Messrs. Fosdick & Kennedy. Three parties have been arrested at Oxford who had burglars' tools upon them.

—On Monday afternoon two shepherds near Lima, Livingston county, New York, quarreled while driving home a flock of sheep they had been washing, and Thomas Smith stabbed Patrick Gaskin twice with a pocket knife, giving him wounds in the bowels and liver from which he died. Smith, after getting a surgeon, surrendered himself to the officers of the law. Gaskin left a wife and seven children.

—On Saturday afternoon four ties were placed at about thirty feet apart across the track of the railroad between Lowell and Lawrence, Mass. The locomotive of a passenger train passed over three of them, but the train, a heavily laden one, was not thrown from the track. A man who was put off a train recently, for drunkenness, was discovered lurking in the vicinity, and is now awaiting trial, charged with having sought the destruction of life and property.

—On Tuesday afternoon the steamer Dumont, en route for Cincinnati, was hailed by two men at the mouth of Sugar Creek, who said they had a sick man in the skiff and wanted to send him to Cincinnati. The man was represented as too sick to be removed from the bottom of the skiff, where he lay, and so it, with its contents, was lifted on board. After the boat was under way the captain went to tender his services to the invalid, whom he found just able to speak. His name was Patrick Shay, and he had been stabbed in an affray with a man named Stanton Adams, who must have shipped him off. He died during the passage, and the Coroner was to hold an inquest on his remains on Thursday.

WEST VIRGINIA.

ON Thursday last, Judge Good was re-elected Judge of the Municipal Court at Wheeling. He had no opposition.

THE voters of Monongahela county have defeated the proposed subscription of $100,000 to the Monongahela Valley Railroad.

THE Mason County Journal (Dem.) concedes that the XVth amendment will be ratified, and is willing to submit to negro suffrage without a fight.

AN employe of the B. & O. Railroad, while handling some ties near New Creek the other day was bitten on the hand by a copperhead snake.

THE citizens of Kingwood, Preston county, have agreed to re-build the court house at that place, recently destroyed by fire, without the expense of a dollar to the county.

THE Norway Iron Works of Wheeling have secured the contract for furnishing the iron on the locks and dams to be constructed in the improvement of the little Kanawha river.

THE Editor of the Morgantown Constitution has a libel suit pending against him to the tune of $2,000; he is alleged to have slandered a saloon keeper, of that place, to the above amount.

THE Parkersburg Times says: Cheering accounts come to us from the Oil Rock region and everything indicates that the old times of '67 will be revived there this summer. Nearly all of the old wells have been effectually plugged and work will soon be resumed on the balance. Since the water has been shut off we learn that the old Roose and Hansford well has doubled its production.

Republican Opinion.

The Greensburg Herald says: We see that Russell Errett, late State Senator from Allegheny county, has brought suits against the Pittsburgh Commercial for certain libelous matter published in that paper against him. We expected that sheet would go on manufacturing capital purposely for the Democracy, in its reckless and indiscriminate tirade against members of the last Legislature, till it would be brought up in this way.

That the last Legislature, like all its predecessors, had corrupt "rings" and dishonest men in it, of both parties, we never doubted, but that there were very many honest, true and faithful representatives in it, who did their duty to the people, and against whom this slang and general abuse does not and should not apply—but is in their cases foul slander and gross libels—is also equally true. For instance, who that knows him as a man or a representative, does or could doubt the purity and integrity of our own Hamilton—an honest, moral and intelligent farmer, who never in all his political life, has been suspected or charged, by his enemies ever; with ought that did not come from the purest motives and actions? He for these, and in obedience to party usage deserves an endorsement at the hands of his constituents. And there are others we could name who we believe are equally free from contamination with corrupt men and "rings." Let us be careful how and where we draw the lines between the venal and unfaithful, and the innocent, honest, pure men. We may and should purge ourselves of the former, as law-makers, but reward and re-indorse the latter.

IN Lenawee county, Michigan, there are six cheese factories, which use nearly fifty thousand pounds of milk daily. It takes about six hundred pounds of milk to make a cheese.

PENNSYLVANIA.

GAS works are now being put up at Uniontown.

A NEW Democratic paper, called the Democrat, is to be started in Honesdale.

REV. H. MILLER, D. D., of Pittsburgh, lectured in Kittanning on Monday last, on the Moral Element in Education.

FRUIT trees and the growing grain crops were quite seriously damaged in Westmoreland county last week by a hail storm.

A VALUABLE discovery of mineral paint has been made at Kimberton, near West Chester. It contains a large percentage of iron, and is of a brown color.

A VEIN of red ash coal has been found on the farm of Benjamin Gross, Manchester township, York county. Investigations as to its probable extent and value are now being made.

THE store house of Henry Drake, in Washington township, Erie county, with stock of dry goods, groceries, &c., were consumed by fire one night last week. The building was struck by lightning.

THE Juniata Sentinel says: On Thursday morning last, an unknown man was run over and instantly killed by the day express train on the Pennsylvania railroad, about half a mile this side of Lewistown.

A SHORT time after the procession retired from the old graveyard on Saturday last, some scoundrels entered it and removed every solitary flower that had been placed upon the soldiers' graves.—Washington Reporter.

SAMUEL ARMOR, an employe of the smelting furnace in Paradise township, Lancaster county, was found dead on Friday evening of last week, in the road leading from the furnace to his home. The cause of his death is unknown.

On Monday, the 23d ult., a child of Josiah Hershey, living in Salisbury township, Lancaster county, aged about a year and a half, climbed up the cellar door, and falling into a tub of water which was standing at the side, was drowned before discovered by the parents.

LAST Friday night a quarrel took place in a drinking shop in Tunkhannock, between two men named Martin and Shingler, during which Martin stabbed Shingler three times with a dirk, and the wounds will probably result fatally. Martin was in gaol, but has escaped and is now at large.

THE Lancaster Examiner says: On Wednesday week, two men, names unknown, who were engaged in painting the hotel of Mr. George Diller, at the Gap, fell from the top of the house to the porch, thence to the ground. One of them sustained fatal injuries, the other escaping with a few slight bruises.

B. B. VAIL, of Forest Lake, who has been an opium eater for many years, hung himself on Saturday, May 22d. He went into the woods, took off some of his outer clothing, laying the articles in a heap together, and hung himself to the limb of a tree, where he was found when missed and searched for.—Montrose Democrat.

THE Crawford Journal says: A well on the Miles tract, owned by Collins Bros., of Pleasantville, commenced pumping on the 27th ult. After pumping two hours it commenced throwing oil at the rate of 24 barrels per day, and steadily increased till it now pumps 100 barrels. The oil is a nice green color. The well is 470 feet deep.

LAST week a little child two years old, of David Katrine, Willistown, Chester county, was so badly burned as to cause death. The mother was busily engaged washing, and the little one got so near the stove, which was very hot, that its clothes took fire, and before the mother was aware of the fact, it was so severely burned that it died the same day.

ON Friday night last, about ten o'clock, an attempt was made to shoot Spencer Worthington, who was riding along a highway on horseback, in Bucks county. He was shot at twice. The first shot missed, the second struck his horse in the head and brought it to the ground. The perpetrator of the deed is entirely unknown, and no cause can be imagined for the act.—Lebanon Courier.

THE Forest Press says: Within four mies of the Forest Press office, D. G. Hunter has discovered what experienced California miners pronounce the genuine quartz rock, specimens of which can be seen at this office. Mr. Hunter has no interest whatever in the lands on which this quartz has been discovered, and is a gentleman whose word is as good as his bond among his acquaintances. Since publishing the above, we learn that the lead is being followed up, and its value will soon be known.

ON Wednesday last, Mrs. Thomas Foster, of West Chester, observed her cat acting very singularly, such as jumping around, biting at different things and looking very wild. At length she observed it bite another cat and kitten. She drove it into the cellar, and a gentleman going down to look at it, it gathered itself up as though about to spring upon him; he hurried out of its way. A son of Mrs. Foster then went into the cellar and shot it. The cats that were bitten were also shot.

YESTERDAY Thomas Cunningham, who is the conductor of the local passenger train which runs between this city and Harrisburg, was addressed by a man who stated that two years ago he and his wife passed over the Pennsylvania Railroad between Elizabethtown and Mount Joy without paying their fare. He inquired the price of a single ticket between these two points, and on being informed that it was twenty-five cents, handed Mr. Cunningham fifty cents. This is a remarkable case of conscience.—Lancaster Express, May 26.

So far as can be ascertained the damage to the crops in Indiana by the late rains has been general. Corn had been later planted, and the breadth not so large as usual, and this has been damaged in low bottoms and on side hills. Wheat has been growing very rank, and had commenced heading out, and much of it has been broken down by the heavy storms. Those who have been watching it closely do not anticipate so large a yield by one-fifth as that of last year, but many more acres were sown than usual last fall.

A CITIZEN of Brunswick, Maine, who earns his living working by the day, has paid for morphine, for the use of his wife, nearly thirteen hundred dollars during the past fourteen years. She uses it constantly at the present time—one drachm lasting her five days. The woman declares that she cannot live without this stimulus, and her husband once walked twenty-four miles to get her usual supply.

DR. WHITTIER

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated Vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, June 3, 1869.

The oil market was considerably stronger to-day and with considerable inquiry, there was not the same disposition to sell that there has been for some time past, and, as a consequence, prices are higher. Most of the Refined sold within the past week was bought by Pittsburgh from Philadelphia and New York; bought by parties here who were "short" and, if all accounts are true, sold "short" there. Refiners, as a general thing, are opposed to "selling short" or "going long," and there seems to be a determination manifested to buy and sell right along, without regard to the "shorts" or "longs," and to give more time and attention to manufacturing and less to speculating. All they want is a fair manufacturing profit; as for speculating, they will leave that to those who make a specialty of this branch of the business.

REFINED.

The operations in refined exhibit a fair degree of activity, and as already intimated, the market is firmer and prices higher. We can report two lines of 500 each July to October, at 31¾; 1,000 for August at 31¾; 500 June at 30; 2,000 spot at 29½; two lines of 500 each, July to September, at 32; showing an advance of fully half a cent compared with yesterday.

CRUDE.

Sale 1,000 bbls spot at 12¾; 500 last half June, (40 to 45) on board cars at Oil City, at $5; 1,000 June, seller, deliverable same place, at $4,95; and 1,000 seller, all year, at 12½. Buyer until October may be quoted at 15.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The weather is now very fine, but business is nevertheless inactive, as the market has been cleared of several lines of cotton goods. The tendency of prices is upwards. The demand for Lincoln bleached muslins is so strong that agents have put up the price to 17c, but one house, William J. Peak & Co., is still selling the goods at 14½c. There is no doubt, however, but they will be advanced to-morrow, if not to-day, to 16c. The Cabot are still selling at 15c, Kearsarge L at 15c, Maxwell at 20c, Chapman X at 12½c, Reynolds at 12½c, Greene G 12c, do. H 10½c, Red Bank 4-4 bring 11½c, do. 7-8 10½c; Hopes have been advanced to 14½c, Branch D and Blackstone D 12½c; the Auburn have risen to 16c. In other classes of goods there is no particular change to observe. The tendency is upward, but much will depend upon the future of trade.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily with seven feet in the channel by Monongahela marks last evening. Weather worm but seasonable and seemingly settled.

The Kate Putnam departed for Cincinnati and Louisville yesterday with a good trip. Pilots—James Henderson and Capt. James Hamilton.

The Kenton is the regular packet for Portsmouth to-day, leaving at 4 P. M.

The Bellevernon, Capt. J. J. Darragh, is announced for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi, and she is one of the best boats in the trade. When it comes to speed she is hard to beat.

The numerous steamboat friends of Capt. Joe. Brown, are very much elated at his success in being nominated for clerk of the Court. He will make a good officer.

The towboat Alps left for New Orleans yesterday with 150,000 bushels of coal. It is not likely that any more tows will venture on this water.

From present appearances there will be quite a number of new boats built here this summer and fall. Some eight or ten have already been contracted for and we hear of others being talked of. Pittsburgh certainly has the lion's share of boat building.

—A Cincinnati exchange says: Major John Adams is about to contract at Pittsburgh for the building of three new steamers for the Memphis and Arkansas River Company. He will also contract with the Dock Company at Memphis for the building of a new hull for a boat for he Upper Arkansas river trade.

—Capt. Frank Voorhees is now agent for the Planters' Mills, at St. Louis.

—The Cora S, recently sunk in the Arkansas river, has been raised, and is en route for Cairo for repairs.

—About 35,000 hogsheads of tobacco will be shipped eastward through Evansville during the present season.

—Simultaneously the Upper Missouri and Mississippi are again reported rising. The rains have been tremendous.

—The Burlington Hawkeye says: The Louisville is a large three deck New Orleans boat, and brought a cargo of iron to Keokuk. Hearing that the Upper Mississippi was full of produce, her officers have run her up for a loae. If the river continues to fall as fast as it has during the past week, she will do well to get down over the lower rapids without any freight.

The St. Paul Press, of Saturday, says: The Messenger, from Pittsburgh, of the Dean Line, arrived here yesterday morning with a very fair freight. She is commanded by Capt. Jesse Dean, with Jas. Russell in the office. After discharging her freight she went up to Cheever's Landing, where she expected to receive 1,000 barrels of flour. She will return to the levee this morning, and at 10 A. M. she sails for Pittsburgh. On her way up she arranged for considerable freight at points below.

—The Camelia left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Friday. Pilots—Creight Reno and W. Gosney. It is reported that she broke her wheel badly by getting her sterm into an eddy in Cumberland river, with her head in the current.

—The Louisville Courier reports that the Mary Houston passed the Great Republic twice on her recent trip from New Orleans. The Republic had enough railroad iron to sink the Houston, and doubtless, made no effort at speed, as she was deeply laden, having 1,500 tons.

—Capt. W. B. Hazlett, owner of the Nile, was to have left St. Louis for Sioux City on Wednesday, at which place he will re-lead his boat and send her back to Benton.

—The towboat Tom Rees, from St. Louis, with three barges loaded with iron ore, grounded on the abutment at the head of the canal, on Tuesday.

—Capt. Murray's new boat, Ida Murray, being built at New Albany, will be 172 feet long, 26 feet beam, with 6 feet hold. Her cylinders, which were formerly in the Ella Faber, are sixteen inches in diameter, with four-and-a-half feet stroke.

—The Great Republic arrived at St. Louis, on Tuesday, from New Orleans.

—The Lawrence was advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

—A St. Louis telegram says: The St. Louis and New Orleans Packet Company was finally organized to-day, by the election of the directors previously reported. At a meeting, this morning, articles of association were determined upon, and Captain J. N. Bofinger elected President, and Captain John W. Carroll Superintendent. The steamers to constitute the line have not all been announced, but those previously reported will be among the number.

River and Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, June 3—The river is declining, with eight feet one inch in the canal. The weather is clear and warm.

LEGS!
LEGS!!
The Artificial Limb Manufacturing CO.
CHARTERED BY THE STATE OF PENNA.
All Shareholders are Men Wearing the Limbs Made by the Company.

To those requiring a limb we would say that our own experience has induced us to establish a factory here that would make a comfortable and durable limb for a reasonable price. After trying a number of solid socket and padded socket legs, we have each found more comfort and usefulness in this "ADJUSTABLE LACEING SOCKET" than in any other made in the country. One of our number, a skilled mechanic, has charge of the shop. We have bought the right to use two of the best patents, and by our experience we hope to improve in every way that will add to the comfort, durability or appearance of the limbs we make. We have put the price of our new legs at $80. Persons from a distance are only detained in the city while the measure and a cast of the injured limb is taken.

The saving to purchasers, as compared with Eastern prices, is from $20 to $95 in the price of legs; at least $26 railroad fare, hotel bills and other traveling expenses, and then we are satisfied that our limb will give better satisfaction than any one made in New York or Philadelphia. If we can get orders, we can maintain our factory at the above price, and we therefore ask an examination before going elsewhere.

We make to order and keep on hand a supply of stockings, braces, and appliances for injured or deformed limbs, also, crutches, trusses, shoulder braces, &c. For further information or circular, containing many testimonial letters from those who have worn our artificial limbs, address ARTIFICIAL LIMB MANUFACTURING CO., No. 503 PENN STREET, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, Pittsburgh, Pa. ap13:h35

U. S. Bonds at Frankfort, 86½@87.

Petroleum at Antwerp, 47½f.

Gold closed in New York yesterday at 138⅛.

The public debt was decreased by upwards of thirteen millions of dollars last month.

Collector Nevin, of the XXIIId or Allegheny District, makes room for Mr. R. L. Brown, a very capable gentleman and a prominent citizen of Armstrong county.

The card of H. M. Long, Esq., in another column, will attract Republican attention. It is a prompt and manly refutation of a dishonorable charge against the Republican County Convention.

At the urgent solicitation of two members of the Joint Committee on Resolutions, the majority of that Committee on Tuesday consented to amend the eighth resolution by inserting the words "by his Excellency John W. Geary." The resolutions were, otherwise, word for word, adopted by the Committee as they were written, except as reported in the regular proceedings of the Conventions.

The Commercial attempts to save its suppressing friend Mr. T. Steel, by saying that the "twelfth" resolution "was not adopted by a majority of the Committee"—and that he suppressed it accordingly. A barefaced falsehood is the natural resort to defend an impudent fraud. A majority of Mr. Steel's own Committee (the Legislative) and a majority of the Joint Committee of the Conventions did adopt that resolution. See the card of Mr. Long on that point. Mr. Thomas Steel is in a tight place, and the blundering fabrications of the Commercial make it still tighter.

Tennessee politics are becoming more and more interesting. A recent decision of the Supreme Court in that State confirms the legality of the registration made by county clerks under an old system, now repealed, and restores the franchise to all such registered voters, from whom a later law had taken it away. This decision is expected to expand the franchise by some forty thousand votes. It now seems probable that each of the opposing Republican candidates for Governor will place himself at once squarely upon a platform of universal suffrage, and with the removal of all restrictions therefrom. A similar tendency is apparent in every part of the Southern political field. It indicates the speedy adoption of a broad and liberal policy in wise accordance with the course of events.

When the Commercial undertakes the defense of Thomas Steel, by saying that he "would not outrage the principles of the Republican party by reporting a resolution which failed to receive the approval of a majority of the Committee"—our neighbor blunders into what we may call a Carnahanism; i. e. he does not state "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth." But six of the nine members of the joint committee met together; four of these voted for the resolution in question. The majority of Mr. Steel's sub-committee were among those four and both of them voted for the resolution. The Commercial must not tell so many whoppers; or else must form them with a little more regard to appearances. Do be more careful, neighbor! In the name of your dead "ring," we implore you not to be so sparing of the truth!

A REPUBLICAN LEADER.

District Attorney Carnahan put in an appearance, either in person or by his counsel, the Democratic Editor of the Leader-Commercial, in the latter journal yesterday. But he makes no reply upon the main issue, and therefore stands mutely confessing the truth of our statement that he had suppressed the truth, in his invidious attack upon the editor of the Gazette in the Judicial Convention on Tuesday. We are satisfied, if he is, on that point. We, he, and the public equally understand what a suppression of the truth is equivalent to. So much for that!

He boasts that he accomplished his purposes with the Convention. He has a right to that boast. He also boasts, it is said, that "he holds his office as District Attorney in spite of the efforts of the two Senators and of all the Republican Representatives from Pennsylvania for his removal." He is perhaps right in that boast also.

But he is a nice Republican politician, to lead a Republican Convention in Allegheny county by the nose—and a nice lot of wide-awake and outspoken Republican delegates to suffer themselves to be thus led. His proper place was on a very far back seat in that body, and to sing very small. Appointed to office by Mr. Lincoln, and re-appointed by Mr. Johnson, retaining his place under the latter's administration, as well before as after the passage of the Office-Tenure Law, through all its bitter warfare upon the Republican principles and party,—how District Attorney Carnahan contrived to maintain himself has always excited the curiosity of the public. Alternately avowing himself a Republican, and making Johnson speeches, he was sometimes on one side of the fence and sometimes on the other, but always too much a Johnson man to be trusted or respected by Republicans then, yet always quite enough of a Republican in his public avowals to have ensured his removal from office by A. J., had not some secret arrangement existed, by which he felt sure of his place. This arrangement we propose to ventilate at our earliest convenience. And we shall then speak by the book, and will satisfy the Republicans of Allegheny that this trimming politician is one of the very last men whom they should look to for advice upon Republican duty.

The passage of the Office Tenure Law made a new man of the District Attorney; it reconstructed the politician entirely. He snapped his fingers at the Executive who could no longer remove him, but whom he had obsequiously flattered as long as his own bread and butter was at stake—and came out again a full-fledged Republican, the loudest of declaimers and the most radical of radicals. He did not need any more "secret understandings," either with A. J. or with the Democracy—and he went back on all those arrangements, under which he had so far kept his place, with the prompt facility of a weather-cock.

Since he has seen fit to obtrude himself actively among Republican leaders, and upon a Republican Convention, as the champion of the most shameful assaults upon the integrity of the party, in its requirements from its public men, he makes his own political record public property, and we shall deal with it as such. We are amply prepared to present its salient points, and to the public satisfaction. Our readers may expect something very rich—and we shall ask them to read it by way of a running commentary upon the "Republicanism" of this champion of Andrew Johnson in years past, and of the Pittsburgh Commercial, with its wholesale abuse of the Republican party, in the Judicial Convention the other day. And the people will then agree with us, that the District Attorney was a queer leader for Republican delegates in this county. Since he is averse to any muzzles upon the freedom of the press, he will himself be gratified with the frankness with which we propose to let the daylight into his past political and official experience.

WHO CRIES "STOP THIEF!"

The Harrisburg Telegraph makes a very interesting revelation, as to the personal honesty of one of the editors of a disreputable print, in the interior of the State—one of the two newspapers which have of late so clamorously assailed the integrity of the Republican party and its office-holders. Says the Telegraph:

> A certain individual who had been constantly harping in the columns of a certain paper upon the dishonesty of the last Legislature, charging them as a body with the grossest corruption, and indirectly implicating individual members in the most disgraceful and damaging conduct, had in his employ a carpenter, engaged to do certain work, the payment for which was to come from the State Treasury. When the work was finished, the bill, amounting to twenty-five hundred dollars, was made out, and the carpenter, who was in want of funds, desired the agent or assistant of his employer to certify its correctness, so that he could draw the money from the Treasury. The agent, as we shall call him, who in reality had very little business on hand to employ his time, was nevertheless always, as he said, too much engaged to examine the bill, and in this way the carpenter was for some time deprived of the use of the money which he had honestly earned. At length he grew tired calling on the man who never had time to look at his bill, and he finally called upon the State Treasurer, to whom he related the circumstance. That officer, who probably suspected how business was conducted in a certain quarter, intimated the opinion that the certificate could be obtained if the carpenter would accompany his request with a small present. To this suggestion the latter promptly replied: "I have offered the man five hundred dollars if he would certify the account and get the money; but he wants me to make out a bill for FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS against the State, which he AGREES TO CERTIFY if I will pay him TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS." This, added the carpenter, "I have declined to do. The bill, as made out for twenty-five hundred dollars, is correct, and I want the money." The State Treasurer, naturally indignant at such a revelation of contemplated fraud upon the public finances, assured the carpenter that he should be promptly paid, and forthwith sent for the dishonest official, (the same fellow, be it remembered, who has made himself so prominent as a denouncer of legislative corruption,) told him of the complaint made against him, and suggested that he might escape trouble by giving the carpenter the required certificate at once; which, of course, being unexpectedly caught in his attempt to swindle, he did without further hesitation or delay. In this way an honest man got his money and a roguish officeholder was prevented from robbing the State of FIFTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS.

The ostensible editor (not the real editor who is revealed as a well-known Copperhead,) of another of the same trio of journals, which have lately denounced Republican corruption, seems to have been equally unfortunate in one of his own little private raids upon the Treasury, of which we have these particulars from a correspondent:

> The editor, while in Harrisburg during the session of the Legislature of 1867, was summoned to appear before the Committee appointed to investigate the charges made through his newspaper against certain members for corruption. It is reported of this incorruptible "guardian" of the State Treasury that, though in the Capital on other business when summoned before the Committee, he had hardly given his testimony until he was demanding from the State Treasurer mileage from Pittsburgh for his attendance before the Committee. That Legislature may or may not have been a corrupt one, but its Committee was not corrupt enough to pay such an imprudent bill as that, and so rejected it altogether. Wanted, the Commercial's opinion on this case. Twenty-third Ward.

A CALUMNY REPELLED.

Allegheny, June 3, 1869.

Messrs. Editors Gazette: The undersigned wishes no controversy with the Pittsburgh Commercial, but he cannot permit the statements made editorially in this morning's paper, in relation to the twelfth resolution in the series adopted in the County Convention, to go unanswered, as by implication the honor of the majority of the Joint Committee on Resolutions is brought into question.

The Commercial says in its article headed "Mr. Collector Steel," that he (Steel) "would not outrage the principles of the Republican party by reporting a resolution which failed to receive the approval of a majority of the Committee." (The Italics are mine.)

And in another place the same article says, "The resolution (12th,) not having been adopted by a majority of the Committee."

In the article headed "That Little Joker," it says, "A resolution (12th,) smuggled through the County Convention." (Italics are mine again.)

Now, Sirs, these are strange statements for one holding the responsible position of an editor of a daily newspaper, to make. And unmistakably prove either, that he has been grossly deceived, or that he writes regardless of truth and careless of the personal character of those whom his words assail.

The writer unqualifiedly states that the (12th) twelfth resolution did receive the approval of (6) six out of the nine (9) members of the Joint Committee, and challenges any one to a denial of the statement.

2d. That the said resolution received the full, emphatic and unanimous approval of the County Committee on resolutions, also the approval of (2) two of the (3) three members of the Legislative Committee, and one (1) of the Judicial Committee, making (6) six out of (9) nine.

This being the case, how does it "outrage the principles of the Republican party" in reporting the resolution as instructed by a majority of the Joint Committee on resolutions?

Was it not on the contrary, an "outrage" to pocket and suppress the resolution by the Chairman of one of the sub-committees, contrary not only to the wishes of the majority of the full committee, but also of a majority of the sub-committee representing his own convention?

3d. The undersigned further states that the resolutions entire, as adopted in the County Convention, were unanimously approved by the committee from that convention, and, also, that the (12) twelfth resolution was read by the writer hereof to a leading representative of the Commercial, and his approval of the same asked, before the report was read in convention. He made no objection to its passage. This was probably a full hour before the convention adjourned, and ample time was given for any complaints to be made known.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was announced while the room was yet full of delegates, was read in a loud, clear voice by Col. Stewart, one of the Secretaries of the Convention, and on motion was unanimously adopted entire as read.

The writer would be pleased if the editor of the Commercial would show him where and when the "smuggling" was done, and if, in the meantime, he discovers his mistake and the injustice done to myself and the other members of our committee, it will be right for him—and we demand it of him—to withdraw this charge of "smuggling through the County Convention."

It certainly will be better for the reputation of his paper to be more guarded hereafter in making such sweeping charges against his fellow citizens, without the least foundation in fact therefor, and, in the writer's humble opinion, this is one of the very errors sought to be avoided by the passage of the twelfth resolve, that "vague and indiscriminate accusations" against persons, whether in or out of office, should never be made without good proof therefor.

Surely an editor shows little knowledge (or belief) in the influence of his paper, who will wantonly assail, without the very best of proof, the character of men or their motives for action; or, having this knowledge, exhibits a daring recklessness or depravity, or both, for the exhibition of which a "straight jacket" would be none too severe.

Further, if you will allow me to add, the articles which of late have been appearing in the Commercial, "pitching in" indiscriminately against everybody who saw fit to differ with it, and particularly against Republican office holders, have been the inciting cause and excuse for every weak-kneed Republican to brawl and babble against the party, and the supposed delinquencies of its officers, the tendency of which cannot be otherwise than detrimental to the party, and to its success in the Fall elections.

In closing, I would express the wish that hereafter the Editor of the Commercial will confine himself to the facts, when attempting to criticise the proceedings of any Committee, and not depend too much upon the words of those who manifestly have this time deceived him.

Henry M. Long,
Chairman of County Committee on Resolutions.

Allegheny City, June 3, 1869.

Messrs. Editors Gazette: In reading the Commercial this morning I find in one of their editorials they speak of "smuggling" through the resolutions in the County Conventions. Now I consider Tom Marshall too good a man to allow any person to smuggle through any resolution, be it in favor of or against the Commercial. When Mr. Stewart, one of the Secretaries, read the resolutions, he did it in a loud clear voice, so that all in the room heard them, and they were adopted in as loud a tone as they were read, not having a dissenting voice. When the Commercial attacks the County Convention and says we were guilty of "smuggling," it attacks our Chairman, Secretaries and all the delegates.

I have nothing to do with the fight between you and the Commercial, as I belong to neither of the "rings," but went to the Convention to "wring" in for Hugh Fleming for Sheriff, and we did it too. I hope other delegates will speak out and denounce the charge against us, of "smuggling." I should like to hear from our Chairman on this question, as he, so far as I could see, allowed nothing but what was on the square.

A Delegate.

Messrs. Editors: Permit me to say through your columns that I am a good Republican, and have served my party in the field fighting for its God given principles before the cannon's mouth. I am not a simpleton and cannot be duped into believing that my vote, as a delegate in the County Covention, was wheedled out of me by any political tricksters. I gave my assent to the 12th resolution, believing it was right. I would do so every hour of the day under similar circumstances, if called upon to do so. The delegates to the County Convention knew what they were about. They did not fear to give expression to their honest sentiments. They did it, one and all. Every right-thinking Republican is with you in this contest. Stand to your guns and let no skulker escape. You have brought down your game so far like good hunters, and the people cry out in tones of satisfaction. Teuton.

Editors Gazette: Stick! That's the word. You have accomplished your aims, and, in spite of all bolstering, the Commercial must go down in public opinion. You can afford to be called corruptionists, as long as you defend the great Republican party from the attacks of those who desire and would rejoice in its overthrow. Let the enemies feel your lashes, and do not let up until they take a back seat and clamor for mercy. Oakland.

Editors Gazette: All I can ask of you before peace is declared is to publish the record of some of the wise and honest patriots now clinging to the capsized boat of the Commercial. You owe it to yourselves to put everybody fairly and squarely before the public, so print somethings you are presumed to know. The Republican party will back you to the last in the exposures you are prepared to make.

Record.

The Louisville Courier-Journal speaks thus kindly, of the Cincinnati proposition to spend ten millions of dollars in railway building in Kentucky and Tennessee:

> We of course do not object to Cincinnati's spending this amount of money in the State of Kentucky. It will, no doubt, whenever it is spent, develop the resources of our State. Cincinnati has already received sufficient benefit from her trade with this State to make it not onerous to pay a perpetual tax on $10,000,000 for our benefit.

A Temperance Reform.

They do things in a queer and novel way out West. In Clyde, Ohio, the ladies organized a "Reform Association," and proceeded to business. They visited the bar rooms and billiard saloons, took their knitting with them and sat down for a siege. The result is described by an observer as follows: "Many were the revelations which were made during these calls, some of which sadly proved the 'deceitfulness and desperate wickedness' of the human heart. In a few instances wives met their own husbands, mothers their sons, and young ladies their lovers. This state of things caused an agitation seldom if ever known. Not many cared to risk a second meeting with their friends and neighbors in their evening resort, and but a few such unlooked for visits were necessary to convince the billiard room keepers that business had become suddenly stagnant with them, and they concluded, as they said, 'to leave a place where women were allowed to rule.' Two weeks of faithful visitation caused the exit from the town of both billiard rooms."

Then the ladies got up a petition largely signed, which they presented to the Common Council and asked them to pass a law prohibitory of rum. This was done, and the ordinance puts a stop to social dram-drinking, as nothing less than a pint can be lawfully sold, and this not to be drunk on the premises. The Clyde folks do not hold a pint at a time.

Grand Tournament—The Tilt—Successful Knight—Crowning of the Queen and Maids of Honor.

The Grand Tournament of the Knights of the White Cross took place at Union Skating Park yesterday afternoon, and was, so far as we are able to judge, a complete success. The attendance was, perhaps, not so large as on former occasions, but the interest manifested by those present could not have been greater.

At one o'clock the contesting Knights, gaily attired and well mounted, formed in procession at the corner of Webster avenue and Crawford street, and, preceded by Julius Moore's excellent brass band, marched through the principal thoroughfares of the city, and thence to the Union Skating Park, Allegheny, by way of the Suspension bridge.

Following are the names of the contesting Knights:

Dick Turpin, H. Worthington; Hatcher's Run, Benjamin Mallory; Memphis, Andrew Ivison; Friendly Brothers, Pressly Jones; Golden Circle, John Ashton; Forest, George Layton; Pittsburgh, John Gatewood; Allegheny, George Anderson; Morning Star, Robert Stevenson; Pleiades, Albert Jackson; Rising Sun, Dr. Madison; Jack Sheppard, Isaac Brown; Lone Star, Charles Williams; Liberty, John Bell.

THE TILT.

After reaching the Park, the Master of Ceremonies, Mr. George W. Lovett, assisted by his aids, arranged the preliminaries for the tilt, in which it was decided that there should be nine runs. Mr. George W. Galway, one of the aids then announced the order of exercises, stating that the Knight who succeeded in taking the most rings in the nine runs should have the pleasure of selecting a maiden of his own choice, and crowning her "Queen of Love and Beauty," and that the four next highest should have the honor, respectively, of crowning the first, second, third and fourth "Maids of Honor." The Sir Knights were then ordered to take their positions, and the ring having been placed in the usual way, a tilt began, and resulted as follows:

Memphis................	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0–0
Friendly Bees..........	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0–0
Golden Circle..........	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	0–2
Forest.................	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	0–2
Pittsburgh.............	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0–1
Allegheny..............	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0–1
Morning Star...........	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	0–2
Rising Sun.............	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0–1
Jack Sheppard..........	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0–0
Lone Star..............	0	1	0	0	0	0	1	1	1–4

There being a tie between Sir Knight of the Lone Star and Sir Knight of Liberty, they were required to decide the matter by another tilt, which resulted in the former taking the ring three times in succession, and the latter twice out of three times, which clearly entitled him to the honor, but there appeared to be a disposition to favor his competitor, and the judges decided that Sir Knight of the Lone Star could not carry off the laurels without giving his competitor another chance, on the ground that he did not ride fast enough. The Sir Knight responded that his horse was tired and could not be forced to a greater rate of speed, and proposed to exchange for a faster one, which proposition was readily assented to. The trumpet sounded and the contestants once more took their places and the Knight of the Lone Star was called by the master of ceremonies, and away he dashed on his fresh horse, at lightning speed, carrying the ring with him. One single cheer greeted him and the band played a lively air, after which the ring was replaced, and Sir Knight of Liberty was called and made a gallant attempt, but failed. This, it was thought, would be conclusive as to the claim of a Sir Knight of the Lone Star, but not so. The judges decided that no Knight had a right to ride any horse but his own without the consent of his competitor, whereupon they were compelled to take another tilt, which, after the third round, was decided in favor of Sir Knight of Liberty.

THE MAIDS OF HONOR.

The contest as to who should crown the Maids of Honor was decided as follows: 1st—Knight of the Lone Star; 2d—, Knight of the Golden Circle; 3rd—Knight of the Morning Star; 4th—Knight of the Pleiades.

THE ORATION.

Prof. S. A. Neal having been designated orator of the day, was introduced and addressed the Sir Knights and spectators in an able and eloquent manner.

The Tournament having ended, the procession again formed and headed by the band, proceded to their place of rendezvous, where they were dismissed with instructions to be present at Lafayette Hall at half past seven o'clock, where the crowning ceremonies would take place.

AT LAFAYETTE HALL.

At the appointed hour the crowd began to assemble at Lafayette Hall, where it had been previously announced a festival would be held, at which the successful Knight would crown the Queen and Maids of Honor, after which the gold-headed cane, would be awarded to, the most popular Mayor, Brush or Drum, and a silver watch to the most popular waiter.

Julius Moore's string band was in attendance and enlivened the occasion with excellent music until the arrival of the Sir Knights.

THE CROWNING CEREMONIES.

At ten o'clock the audience was called to order by Colonel George Lovell, Master of Ceremonies, and Prof. S. A. Neal addressed the Knights and the audience, referring briefly to the origin of the sports in which they had been engaged during the day. He then called upon the successful Knights to come forward and occupy the stage, and select the Queen and maids of honor.

Mr. John Bell, the Knight of Liberty, designated as "Queen of Love and Beauty" Miss Nellie Dorsey, who was brought forward and seated on the stage. Prof. S. A. Neal, in a very brief but appropriate speech, placed the crown upon her head.

Mr. Charles Williams, Knight of the Lone Star, selected Miss Maria Lovett as "First Maid of Honor," Mr. Jno. Ashton, Knight of the Golden Circle, selected as "Second Maid of Honor" Miss Annie Rose, Mr. Robert Stevenson, Knight of the Morning Star, designated Miss Henrietta Manly as "Third Maid of Honor," and Mr. Albert Jackson, Knight of the Pleiades, selected from the audience as "Fourth Maid of Honor" Miss Matilda Peterson, upon whose heads the crowns or wreaths were placed as they came upon the stage by Prof. Neal with appropriate remarks.

The band then played a march, and a procession was formed, headed by the successful Knight and his Queen, and after promenading some time the Sir Knights were again formed in line in front of the stage, accompanied by the ladies, and the prizes voted for were presented as follows:

The silver watch to the most popular head waiter was awarded to Mr. George D. Wave, of the Monongahela House.

The cane to be awarded to the Mayor receiving the highest number of votes was not presented, as a sufficient number of votes had not been cast. Mayor Brush was leading his competitor, Mayor Drum, a few votes. The voting will be continued until further notice.

A Silver watch was presented to Col. Geo. W. Lovett, of the Knights of the White Cross, as an emblem of their respect and esteem.

The festivities had not closed when our reporter left the Hall, at 1 o'clock this morning.

Amusements.

Opera House.—Maffit and Bartholomew's comic Patomimic troupe are drawing large audiences at the Opera House, and the entertainments are of a highly amusing character. To-night Mr. W. H. Bartholomew takes a benefit, when "Jeannett and Jeanott" will be presented. The entertainment will conclude with "Old Mother Widdle Weddle."

Pittsburgh Theatre.—The company at the Old Theatre at present is a most excellent one, and they are drawing crowded houses every night.

The Fair.—The Fair and Festival at the Seventh U. P. Church, Seventeenth ward, has so far been a complete success, we would advise all who desire to spend a pleasant evening and contribute to a worthy cause to go to the Fair.

The Recent Indian Massacres—Horrible Brutality.

The Leavenworth (Kansas) Times gives additional particulars of the recent Indian massacres at Fossil Creek. The tongues and hearts were cut out of the dead bodies of the men killed, the calves of their legs slit down and tied under their shoes with pieces of flesh cut from their backs, pieces of telegraph wire were stuck into their bodies, their ears cut off and heads scalped.

John Hark, Deputy United States Marshal, reports that the Indians boiled the hearts of these men for medicine. The Swedish settlers who were attacked on Shillman creek all lived in one house and attempted to reach a place of greater security. Those that remained in the house were not molested; this occurred in two or three instances. The calamity is mainly attributable to lack of arms, for whenever a gun was fired the savages made no fight. The Indians drove off considerable stock from the above settlement. Adjutant General Moorehouse is here organizing a force of militia.

A special from Hays City, Kansas, says it is stated on good authority that the Indians who are committing depredations on the frontier do not belong to the tribes who were operated on last winter south of the Arkansas river, but belong to the northern Cheyennes, Sioux and Arraphoes, who have come south from the department of the Platte. Every effort is being made to afford protection to the settlements, and render life and travel along the border and across the plains secure.

Justice Swayne, of the United States Supreme Court, arrived in New Orleans last week, and will begin to hold court there during the present week. Justice Campbell was the last Justice of the United States Supreme Court, who presided in that District. Justice Swayne is the first to preside since before the war. One of the most important cases that will come before Justice Swayne will be that of Mrs. Gains, who has never been able to secure a settlement of the judgments in her favor in the United States District Court.

Two prominent citizens of Indianapolis, who quarrelled twenty years ago, and have not exchanged a word since, have been reconciled through the influence of the great revival.

MECHANICAL MEDICAL APPLIANCES.

There are certain phases of disease, and certain diseased conditions of the human system, which proceed from displacement and mal-position of some of the various organs of the human body. These are not remediable by the usual and ordinary methods used for the cure of other ailments: but require some mechanical stay or support to maintain the parts in position until they are healed. Prominent among these may be classed a displacement called hernia, or rupture, which is a protrusion of part of the bowel, and which must be returned and kept to its place by some outward support which should be properly adjusted in order to secure immunity from inconvenience and danger. The prevalence of this condition is now very common and should be attended to, immediately on its appearance, not only because of the present inconvenience which its produces, but also in consequence of the usual danger of strangulation which is rarely remedied but by a surgical operation.

Varicose veins in the legs and varicocele are other forms of structural changes which need immediate and scientific outward support, in order to afford relief or effect a cure. Each of these conditions are now as much within the pale of successful treatment as any of the other diseases to which mankind are liable.

Stooped shoulders may be cured at once by the use of my Shoulder Braces, which not only maintain the body in an erect position, but at the same time enlarge its capacity, and allow free and full expansion to the lungs, always a necessary condition to a healthy and perfect use of the pulmonary organs.

There are hundreds of females who would find great benefit from wearing these shoulder braces as they are so constructed as to take all the dragging weight from the back or spine and suspend the clothing from the shoulders. Those who use my shoulder braces need not wear suspenders, as they answer the double purpose of shoulder brace and suspenders: in fact they are the best suspenders ever invented. Sold and applied at

SCIENCE ADVANCES.

As soon as an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting, and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Some time since, mercury, in the disguise of pills, powders, &c., was given for all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quinie was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was inaugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable preparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons suffered to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed upon the community, which, after trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSTETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health and happiness.

For many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation, and its beneficient effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach of a morbid nature, and we are free to say that it can be relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation after years of careful study and sifting, and are now reaping the reward claimed by this valuable specific, and which they so richly merit. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it therefore demands the attention of the afflicted.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE.—The new and beautiful A. M. E. Church, at Mansfield, (Rich Valley,) Pa., will be dedicated on SABBATH, June 6th. Bishop Logan, Rev. A. Cole and Rev. I. C. Pershing are expected to be present. The pastors and congregations of the surrounding charges are respectfully invited to be present. A special train on the Panhandle Railroad will leave Union Depot at 10 o'clock A. M. and return at 6 P. M. Round trip, 50 cents.

DISSOLUTION.

The partnership between the subscribers as Boiler Makers, &c., under the name of WM. BARNHILL & CO., was dissolved by agreement on May 8th, 1869. The books and debts owing to the late firm will be settled and collected only by Mr. GEO. N. ARMSTRONG, at the office of the late firm, No. 26 Penn street, who is thereunto duly authorized, and claims against the firm will be presented to him.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, June 3, 1869.

The gold market opened weak and lower under a more active money market and 138½ was touched from a reaction to 138⅞ took place, closing very steady. A large short uncovered interest outstanding will prevent any material decline, even if the Government should sell more largely. So long as the imports continue in the same proportion at so late a period of the season and exports are small, the prospects for a speedy decline of gold are decidedly poor; in fact, lower rates for gold at present, when so much grain and flour is going out of the country, are not very desirable.

Governments declined still further today under a better demand for money, lower rates for gold, dullness in exchange and lower quotations from Europe.

Stocks look very panicky, but it is likely only a yielding to the bear interests, for the purpose of creating a new short interest. Cleveland and Pittsburgh declined to par and Fort Wayne to 155½.

The supply of money in the banks is quite adequate to the demand, and good paper will be accepted at from eight to nine per cent.

Business is exceedingly dull.

NEW YORK, June 3, 1869.

Money active, 7 per cent. on call. Commercial paper dull, 7@9. Sterling dull, 9@9¼. Gold quiet and lower; opened at 138¼, advanced to 138½, and closed at 137⅞. Carrying rates 6@8, showing an abundance of cash. Government sold one million dollars of gold at 138 26-100@138 325-1000. The proposals amounted to $6,750,000. Exports, $285,715. Clearances, $76,000,000.

The Stock Market was feverish all day, prices falling 2@4 per cent., with a rally in the afternoon from the lowest prices of 1 per cent. Large transactions were made in Michigan Southern, Lake Shore, Pittsburgh, Rock Island, Ohio and Mississippi, St. Paul and Northwestern. The Michigan Southern and Lake Shore election does not seem to have given entire satisfaction to the Vanderbilt party, and the prevailing impression is that a consolidation with the anticipated scrip dividends will be at least deferred. New Jersey Central rose from 117 to 127 on the reported negotiations for the lease to the Pennsylvania Central, and large scrip divdends. Fort Wayne directors are in session at Philadelphia to ratify its lease and decide upon scrip dividends, but action is not yet anounced. An injunction has been granted by Judge Balcom, restraining certain parties from commencing suit against the Erie Company to collect annual interest due on preferred stocks. The market closed feverish and weak.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, June 3, 1869.

The general market continue dull and languid, and devoid of anything new or important. The demand for all of the leading articles is confined mainly to supplying immediate wants and with a light volume of business and an almost entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, prices are nominally unchanged.

APPLES—Fair to choice, $5@8.

APPLE BUTTER—75@$1,00, as to quality.

BUTTER—There is but little good Butter in the hands of commission merchants, but peddlers are keeping the market pretty well supplied. Prime to choice Roll may be quoted at 25@27.

BEANS—Dull at $2@2,50.

CARBON OIL—Is quoted at 28@29 for standard brands, in a jobbing way.

CORNMEAL—$1,50@1,75 per cwt.

CHEESE—Sales of Western Reserve, at 18@20; and New York Goshen at 23@24.

DRIED FRUIT—Is quiet and unchanged. Peaches, 14 for quarters: 15 for mixed and 18 for prime halves. Apples, 13@15.

EGGS—Sales at 18@19.

FEATHERS—Live Geese Feathers may be quoted at 85, to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—Is steady with a fair local demand but unchanged. Spring Wheat at $6@7, and Winter Wheat at $7@8. The Pearl Mill Prices for fresh ground flours are as follows: Pearl Mill three star, green brand, in barrels, $9,40 and in sacks $9,10; double extra of selected amber and white winter wheat, in barrels $8,30, and in sacks $8,00; choice selected red winter wheat flour, in barrels $7,70, and in sacks $7,40; choice spring wheat flour in barrels $7,00 and in sacks $6,70. The Pittsburgh City Mill prices are as follows: Choice white winter wheat flour in barrels, $8,30, and in sacks $8,00; choice red winter wheat flour in barrels $7,40, and in sacks $7,15; choice spring wheat flour in barrels $6,90, and in sacks $6,65 per barrel.

GRAIN—Wheat is offering pretty freely and the mills are getting all they want at $1,35 to $1,38@1,40 for Winter. Oats dull and lower; sales to arrive at 66@67, buyers furnishing sacks, and 72@73 in store. Rye continues very dull, but nominally unchanged at $1,15@1,20. Sales of Corn reported at 78@80 for prime Ear on wharf and 83@85 in store. Barley out of season and little or none in market.

GROCERIES—The Grecery market, like every other branch of business, is dull and devoid of anything new or important. Sugars, instead of getting stronger as was generally supposed, are becoming weaker and prices are tending downward. In other articles there is no change whatever.

SUGARS—S H, 11½; A A, 13; Havana 14; Cuba, 13; Porto Rico, 14@14½ Demarara, 15½; New Orleans, but little prime in market and sells readily at 14½@15; lower grades, 13@14; Refined, Ex. C, 15¾; B, 16; A, 16¼; Hard, 17¼.

MOLASSES—New Orleans of good quality is in strong request and bring 80@85; Porto Rico, 65@75.

SYRUPS—White Honey Drips, $1,15; Silver Drips, 95c; Jersey, $1,05; Golden 85; Amber, 75; Common, 55@75.

COFFEE—Fair to Good Rio, 20@22; Prime, 24½@25; Choice, 26@26½.

RICE—Carolina, 10½ to 11c; Rangoon, 9½c.

TEAS—Young Hyson, $1,10 to 1,85, G. P., $1,10 to 1,90. Imperial, $1,40 to 1,80. Oolong, 85 to $1,45. Sou Chong, 90c to $1,50.

STARCH—Pearl, 7½; Silver Gloss, 12c, and Corn Starch, 12½c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$8,00 per case.

FRUITS—Layer Raisins, $3,50 per box; Matt do, $7,50; Prunes, 14c; Currants 13c; Vallencia Raisins 14½.

SPICES—Cassia, 90c; Cloves, 45c; grain Pepper, 36 Allspice, 33c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

BAR LEAD—12½c; Shot, $3,25 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbit's," 12c; "Oakely's," 11c; Rosin, 5 to 7c; "Dobbin's," 15c; Wax, 10c; Chem. Olive, 9c.

CANDLES—Mould, 16c; Star, 25c.

BI CARB SODA—$7,00 per 100.

FISH—White Fish $8,75 per half bbl. Lake Herring $3,75.

TOBACCO—Navy 67@70, 10's flat 67@70; Spanish Roll 75's; Cut and Dry ¼'s ½'s and pkgs 28@30.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

New Styles in Bonnets and Parasols.

Bonnets are expensive, the prices ranging from twenty to thirty dollars. The most elegant style is of real black lace, and decorated with flowers of the tint and shade in harmony with the complexion of the wearer. They are often trimmed with wild flowers and green grasses, and nothing has so pretty an effect as the little wild forget-me-not peeping out here and there from among the dew spangled grass.

An elegant black lace bonnet is made with a ruche over a diadem just above the forehead. Sprays of the beautiful clematis span this ruche, and are caught upon the top of the bonnet with a wreath of green leaves sparkling with dew. Wide, rich lace is fulled across the back, and descends upon the satin circlet in front. A bow of satin ribbon is fastened to the centre upon the breast, with a cluster of clematis.

A black lace bonnet recently worn was noticeable for its chasteness of style, and yet was not expensive. The frame was covered with black tulle, put on very full, and over this were rows of wide black lace edging, set on quite full. A roll of black ribbon crosses the back, from which is a fall of lace, both ribbon and lace extending in a circlet in front, with a bow and long ends; clusters of marguerites and green leaves in front.

But every one does not admire a black bonnet, even when fashionable, and white crape or tulle are very much in vogue for evening wear and dress occasions. A pretty bonnet of white tulle is made by fulling the material in a slight puff across the front, and with upright box plaits at the back. Accross the centre and sinking among the gossamer puffs of tulle is white satin piping, which, extending in front, has a border of plaited tulle with a white satin bow upon the breast. Upon the front, in form of a coronet, are clusters of white moss roses and white lilacs, with a vine of half-opened roses and buds trailing at the back.

Green crape or tulle is also fashionable, and the bonnets of this color are very pretty when worn by those to whom green is becoming. But green being a favorite color, many persist in wearing it whose complexions suffer much from the nearness of so trying a color. A pretty green bonnet was trimmed with sprays of white lilac, with a green satin bridle in front, bordered by a boxplaiting of double tulle with a bow of green satin ribbon, and a vine of white convolvuli trailing from the back. Another of the same shade has clusters of pink hyacinths wreathing the front and sides, and dew-spangled green leaves at the back.

A novelty is a blue crape bonnet, with loops of satin ribbon and sprigs of cowslips, with satin ribbon edged with blonde forming the circlet in front. Another, a blue tulle, is neatly decorated with lilies of the valley, having strings of tulle edged with satin.

A beautiful bonnet, of a delicate shade of rose-colored tulle, is made with a full high puff in front, above which is a coronal composed of beetle's wings, of a glittering emerald green, and a spray of leaves trailing over the chignon at the back. Another of rose color has a ruche of black lace in front, in form of a diadem, with a small tuft of white marabout feathers in the centre. At the side is a cluster of shaded, white and rose-colored flowers, with a spray of green leaves, and a trailing vine of the same falling over the chignon. A novelty in straw is formed of flutings of white straw, each fluting edged with narrow black lace. Simple white flowers form the decoration upon the top and sides, with a cluster of the lily of the valley in front.

A bonnet of white crape was noticeable on the street. Crossing the front was a wreath of white moss roses and buds, with a vine of green leaves trailing down the white ribbon circlet in front to the bow and ends in the centre. Wide, white blonde was plaited at the back, falling over the chignon; ribbon of the most delicate shade of lilac was, in clustres of loops, a little to each side of the centre, from which ends trailed to the shoulder, where they were joined by a bow. With this bonnet a suit of black silk was worn, the upper skirt trimmed with lace five inches wide; the skirt of the nearly close fitting basque was edged with narrower lace.

A novelty is of gray tulle with a wreath of half-blown and budding heath across the front, and a full-blown rose upon one side, as though just fallen there accidentally.

There are several styles of round hats, the most novel of which is the Leghorn, with very wide brim—for croquet ground and seaside wear—and trimmed with lace and flowers. As the Leghorn costs from $50 to $80, an imitation of this style can be purchased in straw, which is very pretty and serviceable. Another style droops both front and back, and is trimmed with lace and field flowers.

A pretty little hat, the Andalusian, is of black Neapolitan, trimmed with a Roman scarf tied in a loose knot at the back, with a bird of beautiful plumage in front.

Parasols.—Parasols of some light, delicate shades are in vogue, the most distinguished being those lined with some contrasting color, as pink, green or blue. A lady should not thoughtlessly purchase one because it is her favorite color, as the shade of the lining has an effect upon the complexion, and the blue, green or pink parasol lining is no more becoming to some than a bonnet of the same shade would be. This is evident on pleasant afternoons, as one sees many pretty faces suffer sadly from the severe test to which they are subjected by the lining of the parasol casting an unbecoming shade upon the face. The most elegant parasols are of white silk, lined with a delicate shade, and covered with black llama lace.—N. Y. Post.

Appointment of Postmasters.

Postmaster General Creswell has made the following additional appointments of Postmasters in Pennsylvania:

Waterside, Bedford county—M. E. Ralston, vice Elisha Ralston, resigned.

Cherry Grove, Bedford county—Jacob Feltons, vice J. Louderbaugh, resigned.

Crooked Creek, Tioga county—A. J. Smith, vice E. Westbrook, resigned.

Shoff's Bridge, Somerset county—Wm. S. Kregan, vice F. B. Long, resigned.

It is thought that two-thirds of the hops in the neighborhood of Reedsburg, Wisconsin, will be ploughed up or left uncultivated, and much less labor than usual will be spent upon those that are poled. The aphis has made its appearance there and at Baraboo.

Western Strawberries.

A Chicago paper says: "Southern Illinois is the great strawberry-growing region of the West, furnishing supplies not only to the Chicago market, but to Cincinnati and St. Louis. The latter depends almost entirely upon Southern Illinois for its supply, yet so abundant is the crop that consignments from that quarter arrive in Chicago throughout the season large enough to enable our wholesale fruiterers to ship them in large quantities to other markets north and east. Some idea of the extent of the strawberry crop in Southern Illinois may be gathered from the fact that the strawberry-growers of Cobden recently advertised that from the 20th of May to the 15th of June they would require 1,000 strawberry pickers.

"During the time the season is at its height—namely, from about the 25th of May to the middle of June—the quantity of strawberries imported from Southern Illinois by Chicago dealers average about three car loads a day, each car containing four hundred and fifty bushels. About the middle of June, when the supply from Michigan commences, the supply averages about five hundred bushels a day for about ten days. They are usually packed, first in small quart boxes, and then in cases, each containing from sixteen to twenty-four quarts. The manufacture of these boxes is an extensive and profitable branch of industry. In the fruit-growing districts of Southern Illinois and Michigan there are large factories exclusively ememployed in making fruit-boxes and crates of all kinds. Thousands of these tiny chip boxes are turned out by the manufacturers during the season.'

The Cuban Question.

A Washington dispatch says: The appointment to the Captain-Generalship of Caballero de Rodas is viewed by the Cuban authorities here and in New York as a sign of fiercer and more merciless hostilities on the part of the mother country. De Rodas is an able and prompt commander, and will assemble around him the worst and least scrupulous chiefs of the army, such as belong to the class of the duelist Escalente. It is expected he will draw the reins tighter upon the goaded Cubans, and by consequence make the war more desperate and unrelenting. Meanwhile, and before his arrival, the Cubans and their supposed fillibustering allies will have gained needful headway. The clog upon the new Captain-General's efforts will he founded in the finances of the island, and the generally alleged corruptions of its officials.

New advices have been received here from Cuba, relative to the recognition of the belligerency of Cubans by the Government of Peru. This was brought about, it appears, not through the persuasion of a special convoy, as has been stated, but by an official communication, addressed by Gen. Cespedes to the President of that Republic, describing the progress of the revolutionary movement in Cuba, and the prospects of the patriot cause. Similar communications, it is presumed, have been sent by Cespedes to the Presidents of other Republics of South and Central America, and it is confidently expected that the example of Peru in this matter will shortly be followed by all her sister republics.

Fifteen Hundred Fruit Trees Maliciously Girdled.

A few nights since, at Benton Harbor, St. Joseph county, Michigan, in the great fruit-growing region of the State, the orchards of Mr. Martin Green were visited by a gang of rascals, who girdled 1,500 peach, cherry, apricot, plum, pear and apple trees, valued at $30,000. The trees were in full bloom, and covered with a mass of blossoms. It was evidently intended that the work should be thoroughly done, as the trees were hacked and cut, and the bark peeled off with malicious care. The community was aroused, offered $15,000 for the arrest of the perpetrator, and set to work to repair, as far as possible, the evil which had been done. Five or six hundred trees were regarded as utterly hopeless. The whole region was laid under contribution for rags and grafting wax. The grafting wax was heated in large kettles; women and children stripped and dipped the rags, the tree-surgeons tenderly closed the gaps in the ragged and torn bark, and bound the orifices closely with the bandages, afterward painting the whole liberally with the hot wax to exclude the air and protect the repairs that must be left to nature.

Industrial Occupations for Women.

Miss Catherine Beecher, sister of Henry Ward, the other day invited a large number of leading ladies to meet her at a private residence in Thirty-eighth street, where she submitted to them a plan for the establishment of colleges and schools to prepare young women for industrial occupations. The real object of the gathering was to counteract the woman's rights and woman's suffrage movement, which has grown altogether too fast of late. In fact, one of the ladies present submitted a resolution denunciatory of the entire woman's-rights movement, and the resolution would have been passed but for the general expressed wish not to touch the thing at all, and to ingore it altogether. Another meeting is shortly to be held when practical shape will be given to Miss Beecher's idea.

An exchange tells this tough story: The other evening; in our "private crib," there was a learned dissertation—subject: "Bedbugs and their remarkable tenacity of life." One asserted of his own knowledge that they could be boiled and then come to life. Some had soaked them for hours in turpentine without any fatal consequences. Old Hanks, who had been listening as an outsider, here gave in his experience in corroboration of the facts. Says he, "Some years ago, I took a bedbug to an iron foundry, and dropped it into a ladle where the melted iron was, and had it run into a skillet. Well, my old woman used that skillet pretty constantly for the last six years, and here the other day she broke it all to smash, and what do you think gentlemen, that ere insect just walked out of his hole where he'd been layin' like a frog in a rock, and made tracks for his old roost up stairs! But," added he, by way of parenthesis, "by George, gentlemen, he looked mighty pale!"

The bill for the disestablishment of the Irish Church has passed the British Commons by a vote of three hundred and sixty-one against two hundred and forty-seven. Thus has England reformed one of the most illogical of her abuses, and guaranteed anew her Irish possessions.

In many parts of Indiana the potato bugs are making fearful havoc among the potatoes and tomatoes, and in some instances they have devoured the green leaves of the red pepper.

INSURANCE.

OFFICERS.

CLARENCE H. CLARK, President.
JAY COOKE, Chairman Finance and Executive Committee.
HENRY D. COOKE, Vice President.
EMERSON W. PEET, Secretary and Actuary.

This Company offers the following advantages:
It is a National Company, chartered by special act of Congress, 1868.
It has a paid-up capital of $1,000,000.
It offers low rates of premium.
It furnishes larger insurance than other companies for the same money.
It is definite and certain in its terms.
Its policies are exempt from attachment.
There are no unnecessary restrictions in the policies.
Every policy is non-forfeitable.
Policies may be taken which pay to the insured their full amount, and return all the premiums, so that the insurance costs only the interest on the annual payments.
Policies may be taken that will pay to the insured, after a certain number of years, during life, an annual income of one-tenth the amount named in the policy.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my19:151-d&F

Disorderly Passengers. — Wednesday evening a couple of Alleghenians, whose names are familiar in the community, were arrested for creating a disturbance with a conductor on a car of the Manchester Passenger Railway while passing up Federal street. They were fined ten dollars and costs by the Mayor for their unseemly conduct.

Chastising His Wife.—Philip Luter, a resident of the Third Ward, Allegheny, undertook to chastise his wife with an iron bar, about one o'clock yesterday morning. The cries of the victim attracted the police to the spot, and caused Luter to be placed in the lock-up. Last evening the Mayor fined him twenty dollars which he was unable to pay. He is now in jail.

The Mail Train coming to the city yesterday on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, had no less than five bridal parties aboard. Conductor Boulton, with his usual courtesy, placed them all together in one car, and made quite a happy party, which attracted the attention of all passengers, inasmuch as so many newly made Benedicts grouped together with their blushing brides was no ordinary spectacle.

How it Goes.—Yesterday the vote on the question of Lay Delegation was taken in the Christ M. E. congregation, this city, resulting in one hundred and seventy-seven votes for and two against the measure. The election was conducted by the pastor, Rev. John A. Gray, and two laymen, Messrs. William Vankirk and G. N. Hoffstott. As authorized by the General Conference, the privilege of the ballot was granted the lady members of the church, about sixty of whom availed themselves of the right to vote.

Assault and Battery.—James Ormand, yesterday, made information before the Mayor charging Robert Blair, George McCarthy, and others, with assault and battery. It appears that the deponent is a stranger in the city and stopped at the Greenwood Hotel, and while standing on the steps Saturday evening last, he alleges that the accused shoved him off. His leg was broken by the fall, and he is now lying at the hotel named, where the Mayor went and took the information. A warrant was issued for the accused.

The recent storm assumed the shape of a tornado above Alpsville, on the Youghiogheny river. A strip of country was embraced in its range, fully a mile long and a half mile wide. Trees that had withstood the storms of a half century were snapped in twain, and in some instances, torn up by the roots and hurled a hundred feet from where they grew up. At one point, a fine orchard of apple trees was completely destroyed, every tree being shattered and torn up by the roots. At another point a large tree was carried by the storm and thrown violently on the top of a small frame house, completely demolishing it but injuring none of the occupants.

We call the attention of all persons selling berries to the following extract from the City Ordinance Book:

"That from and after the passage of this ordinance it shall not be lawful to sell berries in the market otherwise than by measure, under a penalty of not less than one dollar nor more than five dollars, to be recovered as like penalties are now by law recovered."

The above was passed about this time last year. We understand Mr. Lyon, Sealer of weights and measures, is determined to rigidly enforce the above ordinance.

Not the Man.

In the Judicial Convention, on Tuesday, a misunderstanding, resulting in some "unpleasantness," occurred between two of the delegates, one of them a Secretary of the Convention. We made no note of the matter, and would not now refer to it, but for the fact that the impression has obtained that Colonel George F. Morgan was one of the parties concerned. This is not the case. Col. M. was not a delegate to the Convention, nor was he present on the occasion.

THE COURTS.

District Court—Judge Kirkpatrick.

THURSDAY, June 3.—The first case taken up was that of Langfith vs. Deitz. action to recover damages for malicious prosecution. In April '67, the plaintiff was driver of car No. 31 on the Citizen's Passenger Railway, running from Pittsburgh to Lawrenceville, and on the 6th day of that month the car having made a trip was returning to the city, while near the corner of Butler and Wainright street, the car ran over and killed Adam Boust, a boy about three years of age, a nephew of the defendant in this case, whereupon the defendant, at the suggestion of the parents of the child made information before Justice Jauncey, of Lawrenceville, charging Langfitt with "willful, malicious and negligent killing." A warrant was issued and Langfitt arrested and committed to the county jail, where he remained two days. Upon an examination of the case by the Grand Jury, the bill was ignored and this suit was brought to recover damages to the amount of five thousand dollars. Jury out.

Owen T. Goffin and Cornelius Townsend, executors of Cyrus Townsend, deceased, vs. Robert Carr. Action to revive judgment. Verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $2,000, to be released upon payment of $729, with attorneys commission as per conditions of bonds and costs of suit.

Cooper & Williams for use of McElroy, Dickinson & Co., vs. James G. Knap. Action against the endorser of a promissory note, to recover the value thereof. On trial.

Common Pleas—Full Bench.

WEDNESDAY, June 3.—The argument list is still occupying the attention of the Common Pleas Court. No business of public importance was transacted to day.

Alleged Forgery.

Mr. William Peach made information before the Mayor yesterday charging Horace S. Snowden with forgery. It is alleged that on the 4th day of May last the accused drew up a promissory note for $475, payable by himself to his father, and on the same day presented the note to Mr. William Peach, endorsed, or purporting to be endorsed, by Joseph Snowden, father of the accused, and his uncle, F. L. Snowden, and at the same time presenting a letter or note purporting to have been written and signed by F. L. Snowden, stating that he would see the note paid. Upon this endorsement Mr. Peach cashed the note, and thought nothing more of the matter until yesterday morning, when he presented the papers to Mr. F. L. Snowden, who pronounced them forgeries and denied either having endorsed the note or written the letter. The accused, it appears, left the city a few days after the transaction, and has not been back since. It was reported that he had gone to Chicago, and the Chief of Police of that city was telegraphed to and requested to have him arrested.

It further appears that the same man, while his father was Mayor's Clerk, without the authority or knowledge of either his father or the Mayor, collected switch licenses to the amount of $350, which he failed to turn over to the city.

Manufacturing Notes.

A number of Pittsburgh capitalists were present at the sale of the lease of the Connellsville Woolen Factory at Connellsville yesterday.

The Wharton Furnace above Uniontown has gone out of blast. The present owners will offer it for sale on the 16th inst.

The Youghiogheny Iron and Coal Company's old Union Furnace at Dunbar, is out of blast and undergoing repairs. The stack will be raised ten feet, put on a bell and hopper and introduce the new Pleyer hot blast, along with new boilers and much new machinery. The improvements will cost about $20,000, and when completed, the furnace will be one of the best in the State. This Company is also building a branch railroad direct from the furnace to the Connellsville road, which will soon be completed.

Oliphant's Furnace at Fair Chance is in full blast and doing excellently well.

A Narrow Escape From Death.

About eleven o'clock yesterday morning George McMullen and Theodore Roth, a boy, employes at T. B. Young's furniture ware rooms, No. 21 Smithfield street, met with an accident by which the former had one thigh broken, and the latter was terribly bruised and lacerated. They were engaged in hoisting a bale of tow at the rear of the ware rooms, McMullen being in the fifth and the boy in the third story, and it appears that they both very foolishly got upon the rope when the bale had ascended about half way to the fifth story, and their combined weights, in addition to that of the tow, broke the rope, precipitating them and the bale to the alley, injuring them as stated. McMullen was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital, on Second avenue, and the boy was removed to Dr. Rodgers' office, on Fourth avenue, where his wounds were dressed, after which he was taken to his home on "the Hill."

OUR BENEVOLENT INSTITUTIONS.

Home for the Friendless—Eighth Anniversary Meeting—What Has Been Accomplished—What is Proposed—The Exercises—Annual Report—Board of Managers.

Yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock, the patrons and friends of the "Home for the Friendless," assembled in the Union Baptist Church, Grant street, to participate in the eighth anniversary exercises of the Institution, The church was well filled with an audience of ladies and gentlemen, among whom we noticed a number of the leading spirits in most of our benevolent enterprises. The children of various ages, from two to fourteen years, were seated upon a platform in front of the audience, and looked so neat and attractive in dress and manner, and seemed so pleased and interested in the exercises, and, altogether, appeared so helpless in their innocence and youth, that the sympathies of the spectator could not but be strongly aroused in behalf of the institution and of the noble efforts of the benevolent ladies having it in charge. An additional attraction to the scene was the fresh, bright flowers and evergreens, which, in wreaths, boquets and baskets, profusely decorated the platform and pulpit pillars and pervaded the air with an agreeable and odoriferous perfume.

Rev. Wm. M. Young, D. D., pastor of the Church, presided, and announced as the first exercise the Twenty-third Psalm, which was repeated in concert by the children, followed by the anthem "Glory to God in the Highest," by four girls and ten boys, Mrs. Levi Wade playing an accompaniment on the organ.

Rev. Dr. Douglass then led the audience in prayer.

Rev. Dr. Young followed in a brief address, in which he touchingly referred to the children present, and the scene as claiming the sympathies and worthy the most devoted energies of the benevolent and humane everywhere.

Mary Adams, a little girl and soldier's orphan, next delivered a poetical address, entitled, "The Spring has Come Again," which was very well rendered.

Rev. J. R. Newell, by request, then read the following annual reports:

MANAGERS' REPORT.

The Managers of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny "Home for the Friendless" meet to-day to celebrate their eighth anniversary. We feel, as on all former occasions, that we have great cause for gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His sustaining care and many mercies bestowed upon us. That watchful eye that notices the sparrow's fall has been over this institution, and these little ones have been clothed from His bountiful hand.

There is great cause for gratitude that such good health has been vouchsafed to us. But few cases of sickness and only one death (and that of a delicate babe,) have occurred during the year.

This speaks well for the sanitary condition of the institution. All is done that is in our power to promote this end. In reviewing the operations of these years that are past, we cannot help feeling that some good has resulted from the efforts put forth to benefit these children of sorrow and want. Hundreds of neglected and friendless little ones have been sheltered by us, and it may be have received instruction that will be the foundations for a life of usefulness here, and of happiness in a future world.

As there are many charitable institutions in these cities, it may not be amiss again to specify the nature and object of this one, as it does not seem to be fully understood, even by some who contribute to its support.

It receives all friendless children that it can accommodate, those who have been bereft of parents, or those whose parents are unfit, or unable to provide for them. There are many cases where one parent is removed by death, perhaps the mother, and the father finds himself unable to care for the little ones as he would like to do. He places them with us, pays what he can for them and feels happy, that the loss of the mother, is in a measure supplied to his children. A mother is left with a family dependent on her, the labor of her hands is insufficient to provide for all their wants, and even if she could, who is to care for them, while she is absent from her home laboring to procure the means for their support.

Such children are placed with us, and the mother can go to her labor with a cheerful heart, knowing that the children will be watched over and kindly cared for.

Who will not say this is a great blessing, and be happy to contribute to such an end? Some are here because their parents are addicted to the dreadful vice of intemperance. A little girl was brought to us some months ago, by a kind hearted gentleman, who found her in a pitiable condition. Parents were drunk, arrested for disorderly conduct, sent to jail, and poor Mary was left to the charity of others. She is still an inmate of the Home.

These cases might be multiplied, but it is unnecessary. We have twenty-nine children of our deceased soldiers, for which the State pays us $105 each per year. To our receiving these children we have heard objections, but we think they are unjustly made. Many of these are as friendless as any others, and as deserving of our care. Should we not rather feel that they are a sacred legacy entrusted to us, and just now, while the nation is honoring the memory of those that have fought, bled and died for us, show our regard for them by caring for their children? We have received during the year sixty-five children, and six adults, temporarily. One of these, Mrs. S——, was at the Home four weeks with her three children. Her case was one of great distress, and she manifested much gratitude for being so kindly treated at the Home.

We have dismissed twenty-nine children, two restored to parents, one adopted, and one death. Present number ninety-two. This has been about the number we have had through the year, and we have refused many more than have been received, for want of room. As we are entirely dependent for support upon the voluntary subscriptions of friends, we now appeal to the kind-hearted and liberal men of wealth of these cities to enable us to enlarge our sphere of operations, that we may not be compelled to turn a deaf ear to the entreaties of the sorrowing mothers, who often leave us, saying, "I know not what I shall do if you will not receive my children." This is an age of enlarged liberality, and it is not uncommon for one individual to give thousands of dollars to found or sustain institutions of this kind.

Is there less sympathy for these things among our citizens than elsewhere, or will they not respond to this appeal and thus enable us to devise liberal things for the needy? We are not unmindful of the favors we have received or the interest manifested towards us, and would gratefully acknowledge even the smallest gift, but if we would do more good more money is needed. We have received a legacy of $1,000, less the tax, from the estate of Mr. Richard Glyde, and $100 from the estate of Mrs. E. J. Patterson. Our children have been kindly remembered on all holiday occasions, all the good things of the season have been sent to them in abundance, which they have enjoyed very much, and for this manifestation of interest, we as well as they, extend to the donors our hearty thanks.

A gentleman exhibited to them a panorama of scripture and other scenes, which was both interesting and profitable to them. They have also been invited occasionally to meet with other Sabbath schools, and we are happy to say, they have always gained credit to themselves and their instructors, by their good deportment, and read answers to questions propounded to them. Our matron, Miss L. J. Blair, is ever ready to promote the happiness of the children, caring for them in health and tenderly watching over them in sickness, and thus endeavoring to discharge the responsible duties devolving upon her.

The day school is under the charge of Miss A. Neel, whom we regard as an excellent disciplinarian, and the scholars generally have improved as much as could be expected, considering the large number (seventy-five), and the difficulty of classifying them.

Our sincere thanks are rendered to our kind physician, Dr. Wm. B. Hezlep, for his constant and valuable services so cheerfully rendered without pecuniary reward. For a few months past the Sabbath School has been conducted by Mr. Moore, a Theological student, who, by his earnestness and variety in teaching, has given a new impulse to the school. The Scriptures are the text book here, and we would fain hope that like Timothy, these children may be made acquainted with them from their youth.

By order of the Board,
MRS. M. R. TREVOR, Secretary.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

The Treasurer's report show that during the year the bequests, less taxes, were $1,090. Annual subscriptions, $2,303; cash for the maintenance of soldier's orphans, $3,697.53; donations, boarding children, interest, etc., $1,517.66; balance on hand commencing the year, $3,915.82; total, $12,524.01. The expenses were, salaries, $980·54; cash to Visiting Committee, $5,918·17; repairs, insurance, medicine, etc., $1,441.71; total, $8,340.42. Leaving a balance in the Treasury of $4,183,59, three thousand dollars of which is in 5-20 bonds.

The reports were unanimously adopted.

Miss Janie Smith,
Miss Mary Nimick,
Miss Ralston

[There will be a meeting of the new Board this afternoon at the "Home," on Washington street, Allegheny.]

The "Anniversary Song of Greeting," composed by Mrs. Levi Wade was then rendered in excellent style by the children, Mrs. Wade presiding at the organ.

ANNIVERSARY SONG.

Sweet Spring, with fairy fingers,
  Has decked the earth with flowers,
And all the little wild birds,
  From out their woodland bowers,
Have sung their song of welcome,
  Their merriest roundelay,—
So we, with love, now greet you,
  Dear friends, this festal day.

Since last we stood before you,
  A year has passed away,
And we have learned our lessons,
  And had our merry play,—
And now the rosy June month,
  The glad month of the year,
Brings us this pleasant meeting,
  To all our hearts so dear.

For all your love so tender,
  Your never failing care,
For all the gifts and blessings,
  Which we together share,
Our "Home," with all the comforts,
  Our friends, so kind and true,
To God our thanks we offer,
  To whom all praise is due.

Declamation's Songs and Dialogues, by the children, and pertinent addresses by Rev. Joseph R. Kerr, of Allegheny, and Col. McFarland, State Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools, and Rev. Dr. Douglas followed. After which, Rev. Dr. Douglas offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we, the citizens of Pittsburgh; Allegheny and vicinity assembled, on the occasion of the anniversary of the "Home for the Friendless of Pittsburgh and Allegheny," express our highest satisfaction with the manner in which the institution is conducted.

Resolved, That the most grateful thanks of the citizens of these cities and vicinity are due those humane and benevolent ladies who have taken such a deep and abiding interest in the cause of the friendless and homeless children.

Resolved, That we most cordially commend this excellent institution to the sympathies and liberality of our people. Adopted unanimously.

The exercises closed with a benediction by Rev. Dr. Douglas.

A Grateful Acknowledgement.

Our readers will remember that among those participating in the exercises of Decoration Day were a number of children from the Soldiers' Orphan School at Uniontown. The children were taken in charge by the members of the Monumental Association and a number of other patriotic ladies in the vicinity, who made great exertions to render their visit to the city pleasant and memorable How well they succeeded may be learned from the following:

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 31, 1869.

Ladies of the Monumental Association:

I take the earliest opportunity, after our return, to express, in behalf of the teachers and scholars of the Uniontown Soldiers' Orphan School, our grateful acknowledgments for the very kind and hospitable manner in which we were entertained while on a visit to your city on Decoration Day. Our accommodations at the Soldiers' Home were most admirable and sumptuous. To Dr. King, Mrs. King, Major Heslep, and the Matron, Mrs. Johnston, we are especially indebted, and fully appreciate their kindness in receiving us into their delightful Home—for their attentention to our wants and readiness even to discommode themselves for our comfort.

To those who made provisions for our conveyance to and from the Home, and to the cemetery and back, as well as for their laborious attention, and also to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, for their renewed favor to our school, we are under great obligations. Nor can we omit to give expression to our grateful feelings for our splendid entertainment at City Hall, and for the thoughtful and valuable gift of books, than which nothing could have been more suitable or more highly appreciated by the children. They were distributed as directed, and made many glad hearts; they will also be grateful mementoes. To all who in any way contributed to our comfort and pleasure, we desire in this manner, and through you, to express the sincere thanks of the school. Respectfully &c.,

A. H. WATERS.
Principal of the Soldiers' Orphan School.

The books referred to, consisted of a library containing one volume for each scholar, which the ladies of the Monumental Association purchased with monies placed in their hands for the purpose.

Church Bells.

We gladly make room for the following letter from the Building Committee of a new Methodist Church at Portsmouth, Ohio. It is, however, only a sample of hundreds of similar testimonials received from all parts of the country, and proves that the high reputation of Fulton, Son & Co.'s bells, long since earned, is still maintained, and that the last products of their foundry are like the former, of such excellence as to defy competition:

OFFICE OF W. S. McCOLM & Co.,
GEN'L FORWARDING AGTS & COM'N MERCHANTS,
PORTSMOUTH, O., May 29, 1869.

MESSRS. A. FULTON, SON & CO. Gents: Several months since I was delegated to buy a large bell, 2,800 pounds, for the Sixth street Methodist Episcopal Church of our city, and having noticed for several years that all of the fine toned bells on the steamboats landing at our wharf were from the Fulton foundry, I at once decided to give you the preference. The bell cast by you for us has now been in use several months, and is entirely satisfactory. For rich mellowness of tone and volume of sound it has no equal in this part of the State. One of the city churches having a Cincinnati bell that cracked twice, have sent to your city for one of your bells, and another church will do likewise shortly. We take pleasure in recommending your bells to all inquirers, feeling confident that they will recommend themselves wherever introduced.

Please accept this unsolicited expression, and refer to our bell with confidence. Yours, &c.,

W. S. McCOLM,
Of Building Com., Sixth st. M. E. C.

Ladies Attention! Price Reduced.

We are pleased to be able to inform our readers this morning that the prices of dry goods—at least of a very desirable class of dry goods—have been reduced. Reduction of prices is never initiated save in a first-class house—an enterprising house—a house where the sales are so large that reduction can be afforded, and the proprietors so judicious as to give their customers the very best bargains attainable. In the present instance it is the popular firm of Bates & Bell, 21 Fifth avenue, which relieves the purchasing public. Messrs. Bates & Bell have lowered their rates on many of their most attractive dress goods fully 25 per cent. They are now receiving a large and very full stock of the finest fabrics of every description, which, while perhaps excelling any heretofore exhibited, can be bought at extremely moderate figures. To day we invite special attention to a beautiful assortment of American made Lenos, or wash poplins which are warranted to retain all their colors and wear in the most satisfactory manner. Some of these excellent goods, suitable for children's dresses, are selling at twenty-five cents per yard, while very attractive English Lenos are selling at the same rate. In fabrics for suits Messrs. Bates & Bell offer particular inducements. They have them plain, mottled, striped and figured in every variety. Grenadines with black ground form a handsome feature of this department. All varieties and colors of alpacas are on hand, to which, however, we need no more than allude to, as every lady knows 21 Fifth avenue to be the store par excellence for alpacas. Of silks there is a fresh and very superior assortment, comprising American black and foreign silks, Japanese silks of all patterns and colors, (the best selection in the city,) and the choicest evening silks of every shade. In writing of the alpacas it may be proper to state that the three most popular makes, the "Buffalo," "Grand Duchess" and "Dragon," are on hand—the second of which is new and superior to anything heretofore offered. Need we say to our lady readers where they can buy the best and finest goods at the lowest prices at all times? Scarcely; if they have seen the new stock at 21 Fifth avenue, they know why we should direct them there.

A Challenge.

I challenge an examination of my stock to show with entire satisfaction that my clothing is made as fashionable as can be found, and cut from material that will be durable, combining all that is required for economy. I solicit a call from purchasers before buying, as the following list will show that they can save a large per centage from prices asked elsewhere:

Fine pants at $5.

One thousand linen coats, pants and vests at $1,25.

Nobby coats, in all colors, $10,50.

Fine blue, black and brown sacks at $9.

Five hundred pairs of working pants at $1,50.

A large assortment of boy's clothing at proportionately low prices.

Boys' suits from $4 to $10.

T. Tobias, No. 13 St. Clair street.

Cut this out and bring it with you to make sure you find the right place.

At His Old Tricks.

W. J. Robinson and William Shore were arrested Thursday night, at No. 41 Fourth avenue, by ten of the Mayor's police, for disorderly conduct. It is alleged that they threw a boulder through the window and acted in a very disorderly manner. When arrested by the officers Robinson, it appears, threatened to kill the man who had taken him in charge. They were, notwithstanding the threats, taken to the lock-up, and yesterday morning the Mayor fined them $25 and costs each, and required them to leave $50 to repair the broken window, and also held them to bail to answer a charge of assault and battery made by the woman who keeps the house, and for surety of the peace, on information of the officer making the arrest.
